PREFACE.

THIS, the Assam Code, is published in two volumes, and contains the local enactments in force in the territories (or any part of the territories) under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Assam. It has been prepared on the same lines as the Eastern Bengal and Assam Code, which was published in 1907.

2. The first volume contains the Bengal Regulations, the local Acts of the Governor General of India in Council and the Regulations made under the Government of India Act, 1870 (33 & 34 Vict., c. 3), in force in Assam, respectively.

3. The second volume contains the Acts of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, and the Acts of the Lieutenant-Governor of Eastern Bengal and Assam in Council in force in Assam, respectively. Two Appendices similar to the Appendices contained in the third volume of the Eastern Bengal and Assam Code and an Index, have been appended to this volume. Appendix I contains explanatory notes and shows (a) the enactments in force in Assam under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), (b) the enactments which have been declared under that Act to be not actually in force in Assam, and (c) the Scheduled Districts which are administered under rules made under section 6 of the same Act. Appendix II also contains explanatory notes and shows the areas in Assam to which the Assam Frontier Tracts Regulation, 1880 (II of 1880), applies and the areas in which the operation of enactments has been barred by notification under that Regulation.

4. The enactments are printed as modified up to the end of the year 1914. No enactments have been passed by the Chief Commissioner of Assam in Council during the years 1912 to 1914. To each volume a Chronological Table has been prefixed showing how the enactments printed in the volume have been affected in Assam by later legislation.

5. This Code was prepared for the Press by Rai Bahadur Dr. S. C. Banerjee, D.L., late Legal Assistant, Legislative Department, but changes resulting from legislation (applicable to Assam) after March, 1914, have since been incorporated.

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES ^[1] OF ENACTMENTS PRINTED IN THIS VOLUME.

[With respect to the entry of repealing enactments in column 4 of these Tables, the following has been the ordinary practice :—

- (1) where an enactment has been totally repealed more than once, the latest repealing enactment has alone been entered ;
- (2) where an enactment has been partially repealed and afterwards totally repealed, the total repeal only has been entered : a repeal of the unrepealed portions of an enactment is treated as a total repeal ;
- (3) partial repeals covered by later partial repeals have not been entered ;
- (4) local repeals covered by later local repeals have not been entered ;
- (5) where an enactment has been locally repealed and afterwards repealed by an enactment whose operation is unrestricted, the later repealing enactment has alone been entered.]

BENGAL REGULATION 1 OF 1793.

(THE BENGAL PERMANENT SETTLEMENT REGULATION, 1793). [1]

[1st May, 1793.]

A Regulation for enacting into a Regulation certain Articles of a Proclamation bearing date the 22nd March, 1793.

Preamble.

1. The following articles of the proclamation relative to the limitation of the public demand upon the lands, addressed by the Governor General in Council to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land paying revenue to Government, in the Provinces of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, are hereby enacted into a Regulation, which is to have force and effect from the 22nd March, 1793, the date of the proclamation.

PROCLAMATION.

Decennial
settlement declared conditionally permanent by original Regulations.

2. Art. I.—In the original Regulations for the decennial settlement of the public revenues of Bengal, [Bihar and Orissa,] passed for those Provinces respectively on the 18th September, 1789, the 25th November, 1789, and the 10th February, 1790, it was notified to the proprietors of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement might be concluded, that the jama assessed upon their lands under those Regulations would be continued after the expiration of the ten years, and remain unalterable for ever, provided such continuance should meet with the approbation of the Honourable Court of Directors for the affairs of the East India Company, and not otherwise.

[1] SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (IV of 1874), section 3, to be in force in the Scheduled Districts of Goalpara (excluding the Eastern Duars) and Sylhet—see, Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B.

3. Art. II.—The Marquis Cornwallis, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Governor General in Council, now notifies to all zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land paying revenue to Government, in the provinces of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, that he has been empowered by the Honourable Court of Directors for the affairs of the East India Company to declare the jama, which has been or may be assessed upon their lands under the Regulations above-mentioned, fixed for ever.

Power to declare jama assessed upon lands under those Regulations, fixed for ever.

4. Art. III.—The Governor General in Council accordingly declares to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been concluded under the Regulations above-mentioned, that at the expiration of the term of the settlement no alteration will be made in the assessment which they have respectively engaged to pay, but that they and their heirs and lawful successors, will be allowed to hold their estates at such assessment for ever.

Jama assessed upon lands of proprietors with whom settlement concluded, fixed for ever.

5. Art. IV.—The lands of some zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, having been held khas, or let in farm, in consequence of their refusing to pay the assessment required of them under the Regulations above-mentioned, the Governor General in Council now notifies to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land whose lands are held khas that they shall be restored to the management of their lands, upon their agreeing to the payment of the assessment which has been or may be required of them, in conformity to the Regulations above-mentioned, and that no alteration shall afterwards be made in that assessment, but that they, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be permitted to hold their respective estates at such assessment for ever :

Jama hereafter agreed to by proprietors whose lands are held khas, or let in farm, fixed for ever.

and he declares to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, whose lands have been let in farm, that they shall not regain possession of their lands before the expiration of the period for which they have been farmed (unless the farmers shall voluntarily consent to make over to them the remaining term of their lease, and the Governor General in Council shall approve of the transfer), but that at the expiration of that period, upon their agreeing to the payment of the assessment which may be required of them, they shall be re-instated, and that no alteration shall afterwards be made in that assessment, but that they, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be allowed to hold their respective estates at such assessment for ever.

6. Art. V.—In the event of the proprietary right in lands that are, or may become, the property of Government being transferred to individuals, such individuals, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be permitted to hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be transferred for ever.

Jama of lands belonging to Government, but transferred to individuals, fixed for ever. Assessment in former times liable to variation at discretion of Government.

7. Art. VI.—It is well known to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, as well as to the inhabitants of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, in general, that from the earliest times until the present period the public assessment upon the land has never been fixed, but that, according to established usage and custom, the rulers of these provinces have from time to time demanded an increase of assessment from the proprietors of land; and that, for the purpose of obtaining this increase, not only frequent investigations have been made to ascertain the actual produce of their estates, but that it has been the practice to deprive them of the management of their lands, and either to let them in farm, or to appoint officers on the part of Government to collect the assessment immediately from the raiyats.

Motives of Court of Directors for abolishing usage and fixing assessment.

The Honourable Court of Directors, considering these usages and measures to be detrimental to the prosperity of the country, have, with a view to promote the future ease and happiness of the people, authorized the foregoing declarations; and the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, are to consider these orders fixing the amount of the assessment as irrevocable, and not liable to alteration by any persons whom the Court of Directors may hereafter appoint to the administration of their affairs in this country.

Proprietors expected to improve estates.

The Governor General in Council trusts that the proprietors of land, sensible of the benefits conferred upon them by the public assessment being fixed for ever, will exert themselves in the cultivation of their lands, under the certainty that they will enjoy exclusively the fruits of their own good management and industry, and that no demand will ever be made upon them, or their heirs or successors, by the present or any future Government, for an augmentation of the public assessment in consequence of the improvement of their respective estates.

Conduct to be observed by proprietors towards dependent talukdars and raiyats.

To discharge the revenues at the stipulated periods without delay or evasion and to conduct themselves with good faith and moderation towards their dependent talukdars and raiyats, are duties at all times indispensably required from the proprietors of land, and a strict observance of those duties is now more than ever incumbent upon them, in return for the benefits which they will themselves derive from the orders now issued.

The Governor General in Council therefore expects that the proprietors of land will not only act in this manner themselves towards their dependent talukdars and raiyats, but also enjoin the strictest adherence to the same principles in the persons whom they may appoint to collect the rents from them.

No claims for remissions or suspensions.

He further expects that, without deviating from this line of conduct, they will regularly discharge the revenue in all seasons; and he accordingly notifies to them, that, in future, no claims or application for suspensions or remissions, on account of drought, inundation or other calamity of season, will be attended to, but that in the event of any zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, or his or her heirs or successors, failing in the punctual discharge of the public revenue which has been or may be assessed upon their lands under the above-mentioned Regulations, a sale of the whole of the lands of the defaulter, or such portion of them as may be sufficient to make good the arrear, will positively and invariably take place.

Sale of lands
for arrears.

8. Art. VII.—To prevent any misconstruction of the foregoing articles the Governor General in Council thinks it necessary to make the following declarations to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land.

First.—It being the duty of the ruling power to protect all classes of people and more particularly those who from their situation are most helpless, the Governor General in Council will, whenever he may deem it proper, enact such Regulations as he may think necessary for the protection and welfare of the dependent talukdars, raiyats and other cultivators of the soil; and no zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land shall be entitled on this account to make any objection to the discharge of the fixed assessment which they have respectively agreed to pay.

Regulations
of raiyats, &c.

Second.—The Governor General in Council having, on the 28th July, 1790, directed the sâir collections to be abolished, a full compensation was granted to the proprietors of land for the loss of revenue sustained by them in consequence of this abolition; and he now declares that, if he should hereafter think it proper to re-establish the sâir collections or any other internal duties, and to appoint officers on the part of Government to collect them, no proprietor of land will be admitted to any participation thereof, or be entitled to make any claims for remissions of assessment on that account.

Right of Gov-
all internal duties,

Third.—The Governor General in Council will impose such assessment as he may deem equitable on all lands at present alienated and paying no public revenue which have been or may be proved to be held under illegal or invalid titles.

and to jama
lands.

The assessment so imposed will belong to Government, and no proprietor of land will be entitled to any part of it.

Fourth.—The jama of those zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, which is declared fixed in the foregoing articles, is to be considered entirely unconnected with, and exclusive of, any allowances which have been made to them in the adjustment of their jama, for keeping up thanas or police establishments, and also of the produce of any lands which they may have been permitted to appropriate for the same purpose, and the Governor General in Council reserves to himself the option of resuming the whole or part of such allowances, or produce of such lands, according as he may think proper in consequence of his having exonerated the proprietors of land from the charge of keeping the peace, and appointed officers on the part of Government to superintend the police of the country.

Resumption of police allowances to proprietors.

The Governor General in Council, however, declares that the allowances or produce of lands which may be resumed will be appropriated to no other purpose but that of defraying the expense of the police; and that instructions will be sent to the Collectors not to add such allowances, or the produce of such lands, to the jama of the proprietors of land, but to collect the amount from them separately.

Estates of disqualified
proprietors
not liable to sale for arrears.

Fifth.—Nothing contained in this proclamation shall be construed to render the lands of the several descriptions of disqualified proprietors, specified in the first Article of the Regulations regarding disqualified landholders, passed on the 15th July, 1791, liable to sale for any arrears which have accrued or may accrue on the fixed jama that has been or may be assessed upon their lands under the above-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement: provided that such arrears have accrued or may accrue during the time that they have been or may be dispossessed of the management of their lands under the said Regulations of the 15th July, 1791.

It is to be understood, however, that whenever all or any of the descriptions of disqualified landholders, specified in the first Article of the last-mentioned Regulations, shall be permitted to assume or retain the management of their lands, in consequence of the ground of their disqualification no longer existing, or of the Governor General in Council dispensing with, altering or abolishing those Regulations, the lands of such proprietors will be held responsible for the payment of the fixed jama that has been or may be assessed thereon, from the time that the management may devolve upon them, in the same manner as the lands of all actual proprietors of land who are declared qualified for the management of their estates, and also of all actual proprietors who are unqualified for such management, by natural or other disabilities, but do not come within the descriptions of disqualified landholders specified in the first Article of the Regulations of the 15th July, 1791, are and will be held answerable, for any arrears that are or may become due from them, on the fixed jama which they, or any persons on their behalf, have engaged or may engage to pay, under the above-mentioned Regulations, for the decennial settlement.

Proprietors
may transfer lands without sanction of Government.

9. Art. VIII.—That no doubt may be entertained whether proprietors of land are entitled, under the existing Regulations, to dispose of their estates without the previous sanction of Government, the Governor General in Council notifies to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land that they are privileged to transfer to whomsoever they may think proper, by sale, gift or otherwise, their proprietary rights in the whole or any portion of their respective estates, without applying to Government for its sanction to the transfer, and that all such transfers will be held valid.

Proviso.

Provided that they be conformable to the Muhammadan or the Hindu laws (according as the religious persuasions of the parties to each transaction may render the validity of it determinable by the former or the latter Code), and that they be not repugnant to any Regulations now in force, which have been passed by the British administrations, or to any Regulations that they may hereafter enact.

Rules for apportioning fixed jama on portions of estates in event of sale or transfer and on share of estates.

But it is also essential that a notification should be made of the principles upon which the fixed assessment charged upon any such estate will be apportioned on the several divisions of it, in the event of the whole of it being transferred by public or private sale, or otherwise, in two or more lots, or of a portion of it being transferred in one, or in two or more lots, or of its being joint property, and a division of it being made amongst the proprietors; otherwise, from the want of a declared rule for estimating the proportion of the fixed jama with which the several shares would be chargeable in such cases, the real value of each share would be uncertain, and consequently the benefits expected to result from fixing the public assessment upon the lands would be but partially obtained.

The Governor General in Council has accordingly prescribed the following rules for apportioning the fixed assessment in the several cases above-mentioned; but as Government might sustain a considerable loss of revenue by disproportionate allotments of the assessment, were the apportioning of it, in any of the cases above specified, to be left to the proprietors, he requires that all such transfers or divisions as may be made by the private act of the parties themselves be notified to the Collector [²] of the revenue of the zila in which the lands may be situated, or such other officer as Government may in future prescribe, in order that the fixed jama, assessed upon the whole estate, may be apportioned on the several shares in the manner hereafter directed, and that the names of the proprietors of each share and the jama charged thereon may be entered upon the public registers, and that separate engagements for the payment of the jama assessed upon each share may be executed by the proprietors, who will thenceforward be considered as actual proprietors of land.

So much of the section as relates to the adjustment of the Government jama on lands exposed to public sale in satisfaction of decrees was repealed by Act IV of 1846, s. 1.

[²] In Assam, the Deputy Commissioner.

And the Governor General in Council declares that, if the parties to such transfers or divisions shall omit to notify them to the Collector [1] of the revenue of the zila or such other officer as may be hereafter prescribed, for the purposes before-mentioned, the whole of such estate will be held responsible to Government for the discharge of the fixed jama assessed upon it, in the same manner as if no such transfer or division had ever taken place.

The Governor General in Council thinks it necessary further to notify, in elucidation of the declarations contained in this Article (which are conformable to the principles of the existing Regulations), that if any zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land shall dispose of a portion of his or her lands as a dependent taluk, the jama which may be stipulated to be paid by the dependent talukdar will not be entered upon the records of Government, nor will the transfer exempt such lands from being answerable, in common with the remainder of the estate, for the payment of the public revenue assessed upon the whole of it, in the event of the proprietor, or his or her heirs or successors, falling in arrear from any cause whatever, nor will it be allowed, in any case, to affect the rights or claims of Government, any more than if it had never taken place.

First.—In the event of the whole of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, under the Regulations above-mentioned, being exposed to public sale by the order of the Governor General in Council, for the discharge of arrears of assessment, or in consequence of the decision of a Court of Justice, in two or more lots, the assessment upon each lot shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands sold may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the existing Regulations, or such other Regulations as the Governor General in Council may hereafter adopt, and the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold them at the jama at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

Second.—When a portion of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, under the Regulations before-mentioned, shall be exposed to public sale, by order of the Governor General in Council, for the liquidation of arrears of assessment, or pursuant to the decision of a Court of Justice, the assessment upon such lands, if disposed of in one lot, shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to their actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands of such proprietor, including those disposed of, may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

If the lands sold shall be disposed of in two or more lots, the assessment upon each lot shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands of such proprietor, including those sold, may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

The actual produce of the whole of the lands of such proprietor, whether the portion of them which may be sold be disposed of in one or in two or more lots, shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the existing Regulations, or such other Regulations as the Governor General in Council may hereafter enact, and the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and his or her or their heirs or successors, will be allowed to hold them at the jama at which they may be so purchased for ever; and the remainder of the public jama, which will consequently be payable by the former proprietor of the whole estate, on account of the portion of it that may be left in his or her possession, will continue unalterable for ever.

Third.—When a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, shall transfer the whole of his or her estate, in two or more distinct portions, to two or more persons, or a portion thereof to one person, or to two or more persons in joint property, by private sale, gift or otherwise, the assessment upon each distinct portion of such estate so transferred shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the assessment upon the whole of the estate of the transferring proprietor, of which the whole or a portion may be so transferred, may bear to the whole of its actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed in the existing Regulations, or such other Regulations as Government may hereafter adopt, and the person or persons to whom such lands may be transferred, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold them at the jama at which they may be so transferred, for ever: and where only a portion of such estate shall be transferred, the remainder of the public jama which will consequently be payable by the former proprietor of the whole estates [¹] on account of the lands that may remain in his or her possession shall be continued unalterable for ever.

Fourth.—Whenever a division shall be made of lands, the settlement of which has been or may be concluded with or on behalf of the proprietor or proprietors, and that are or may become the joint property of two or more persons, the assessment upon each share shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed jama assessed upon the whole of the estate divided may bear to the whole of its actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the existing Regulations or such other Regulations as the Governor General in Council may hereafter adopt, and the sharers, and their heirs and

Adjusting
jama of lands held khas or let in farm.

[¹] 11. Art. X.—The following rules are prescribed respecting the adjustment of the assessment on the lands of zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm, in the event of their being disposed of by public sale, or transferred, by any private act of the proprietor, or of their being joint property, and a division of them taking place amongst the proprietors.

First.—If the whole, or a portion of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land who may not have agreed to the payment of the assessment proposed to him or her under the Regulations above-mentioned, and whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm, shall be exposed to public sale, in one or in two or more lots (pursuant to the decree of a Court of Justice), such lands, if khas, shall be disposed of at whatever assessment the Governor General in Council may deem equitable, and the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

If the lands, at the time of their being exposed to sale, shall be held in farm, and shall be put up in one or in two or more lots, they shall be disposed of under the following conditions :—

The purchaser or purchasers shall receive, during the unexpired part of the term of the lease of the farmer, whatever such proprietor shall have been entitled to receive, in virtue of his or her proprietary rights, on account of the land so purchased, and such purchaser or purchasers shall engage to pay, at the expiration of the lease of the farmer, such assessment on account of the lands as Government may deem equitable.

The sum to be received by the purchaser or purchasers during the unexpired part of the term of the lease of the farmer, and the jama to be paid by such purchaser or purchasers after the expiration of the lease, shall be specified at the time of the sale, and such purchaser or purchasers, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall be allowed to hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

Second.—If a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm, shall transfer by private sale, gift or otherwise the whole or a portion of his or her lands in one or in two or more lots, the person or persons to whom the lands may be so transferred shall be entitled to receive from Government (if the lands are held khas), or from the farmer (if the lands are let in farm), the málikána to which the former proprietor was entitled on account of the land so transferred.

So much of s. 11 as relates to the adjustment of the Government jama on lands exposed to public sale in satisfaction of decrees was repealed by Act IV of 1846, s. 1.

Persons to whom such lands may be so transferred will stand in the same predicament as the zamindars, independent talukdars or other actual proprietors of land mentioned in the fourth Article, whose lands are held khas, or have been let in farm, in consequence of their refusing to pay the assessment required of them under the before-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement; and the declarations contained in that Article are to be held applicable to them.

Third.—In the event of a division being made of lands that are or may become the joint property of two or more persons, and which are or may be held khas or let in farm, the proprietors of the several shares will stand in the same predicament, with regard to their respective shares, as the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land specified in the fourth Article, whose lands have been let in farm or are held khas in consequence of their having refused to pay the assessment required of them under the before-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement; and the declarations contained in that Article are to be considered applicable to them.

BENGAL REGULATION 2 OF 1793.

(THE BENGAL LAND-REVENUE REGULATION, 1793). [1]

[1st May, 1793.]

A Regulation for abolishing the Courts of Mál Adálat or Revenue Courts, and transferring the trial of the suits which were cognizable in those Courts to the Courts of Diwání Adálat; and prescribing Rules for the conduct of the Board of Revenue [2] and the Collectors.

[1] SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897) Schedule III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), section 3, to be in force in the Scheduled District of Sylhet—see Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B.

PARTIAL REPEAL.—So much of this Regulation as requires the appointment of dewans in the different districts, or defines the duties of the dewans, or relates in any other manner, directly or indirectly, to those offices, was repealed by Bengal Regulation XV of 1813. Specific references in the Regulation to dewans were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), and have been omitted—see footnotes, post.

principal articles of export, are the produce of the lands : it follows that the commerce, and consequently the wealth of the country, must increase in proportion to the extension of its agriculture.

But it is not for commercial purposes alone that the encouragement of agriculture is essential to the welfare of these Provinces.

The Hindus, who form the body of the people, are compelled, by the dictates of religion, to depend solely upon the produce of the lands for subsistence; and the generality of such of the lower orders of the Natives as are not of that persuasion are, from habit or necessity, in a similar predicament.

The extensive failure or destruction of the crops that occasionally arises from drought or inundation is in consequence invariably followed by famine, the ravages of which are felt chiefly by the cultivators of the soil and the manufacturers, from whose labours the country derives both its subsistence and wealth.

Experience having evinced that adequate supplies of grain are not obtainable from abroad in seasons of scarcity, the country must necessarily continue subject to these calamities until the proprietors and cultivators of the lands shall have the means of increasing the number of the reservoirs, embankments and other artificial works, by which, to a great degree, the untimely cessation of the periodical rains may be provided against, and the lands protected from inundation; and as a necessary consequence the stock of grain in the country at large shall always be sufficient to supply those occasional, but less extensive, deficiencies in the annual produce which may be expected to occur notwithstanding the adoption of the above precautions to obviate them.

To effect these improvements in agriculture, which must necessarily be followed by the increase of every article of produce, has accordingly been one of the primary objects to which the attention of the British Administration has been directed in its arrangements for the internal government of these Provinces.

As being the two fundamental measures essential to the attainment of it, the property in the soil has been declared to be vested in the landholders, and the revenue payable to Government from each estate has been fixed for ever.

These measures have at once rendered it the interest of the proprietors to improve their estates, and given them the means of raising the funds necessary for that purpose.

The property in the soil was never before formally declared to be vested in the landholders, nor were they allowed to transfer such rights as they did possess or raise money upon the credit of their tenures, without the previous sanction of Government.

With respect to the public demand upon each estate, it was liable to annual or frequent variation at the discretion of Government.

The amount of it was fixed upon an estimate formed by the public officers of the aggregate of the rents payable by the raiyats or tenants for each higha of land in cultivation, of which, after deducting the expenses of collection, ten-elevenths were usually considered as the right of the public and the remainder the share of the landholder.

Refusal to pay the sum required of him was followed by his removal from the management of his lands, and the public dues were either let in farm or collected by an officer of Government, and the above-mentioned share of the landholder, or such sum as special custom, or the orders of Government, might have fixed, was paid to him by the farmer or from the public treasury.

When the extension of cultivation was productive only of a heavier assessment, and even the possession of the property was uncertain, the hereditary landholder had little inducement to improve his estate, and moneyed men had no encouragement to embark their capital in the purchase or improvement of land, whilst not only the profit, but the security for the capital itself, was so precarious.

The same causes, therefore, which prevented the improvement of land depreciated its value.

Further measures, however, are essential to the attainment of the important object above stated.

All questions between Government and the landholders respecting the assessment and collection of the public revenue, and disputed claims between the latter and their raiyats or other persons concerned in the collection of their rents, have hitherto been cognizable in the Courts of Mál Adálat or Revenue Courts.

The Collectors of the Revenue preside in these Courts as Judges, and an appeal lies from their decision to the Board of Revenue, and from the decrees of that Board to the Governor General in Council in the Department of Revenue.

The proprietors can never consider the privileges which have been conferred upon them as secure, whilst the Revenue-officers are vested with these judicial powers.

Exclusive of the objections arising to these Courts from their irregular summary, and often ex parte proceedings, and from the Collectors being obliged to suspend the exercise of their judicial functions whenever they interfere with their financial duties, it is obvious that, if the Regulations for assessing and collecting the public revenue are infringed, the Revenue-officers themselves must be the aggressors, and that individuals who have been wronged by them in one capacity can never hope to obtain redress from them in another.

Their financial occupations equally disqualify them for administering the laws between the proprietors of land and their tenants.

Other security, therefore, must be given to landed property and to the rights attached to it before the desired improvements in agriculture can be expected to be effected.

Government must divest itself of the power of infringing, in its executive capacity, the rights and privileges which, as exercising the legislative authority, it has conferred on the landholders.

The Revenue-officers must be deprived of their judicial powers.

All financial claims of the public, when disputed under the Regulations, must be subjected to the cognizance of Courts of Judicature, superintended by Judges who, from their official situations and the nature of their trusts, shall not only be wholly uninterested in the result of their decisions, but bound to decide impartially between the public and the proprietors of land, and also between the latter and their tenants.

The Collectors of the Revenue must not only be divested of the power of deciding upon their own acts, but rendered amenable for them to the Courts of Judicature, and collect the public dues subject to a personal prosecution for every exaction exceeding the amount which they are authorized to demand on behalf of the public, and for every deviation from the Regulations prescribed for the collection of it.

No power will then exist in the country by which the rights vested in the landholders by the Regulations can be infringed or the value of landed property affected.

Land must, in consequence, become the most desirable of all property, and the industry of the people will be directed to those improvements in agriculture which are as essential to their own welfare as to the prosperity of the State.

The following rules, being the rules passed for the guidance of the Collectors and the Board of Revenue, on the 8th June, 1787, and the 25th April, 1788, with alterations adapted to the principles above stated, have been accordingly enacted.

2. [Abolition of Courts of Mâl Adâlat.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1873 (12 of 1873).

3. The collection of the revenue payable to Government from the estates in each zila is to be committed, as heretofore, to a civil covenanted servant of the Company, who is to be styled Collector of the Revenue [1] of the zila to which he may be appointed * * * * * [2].

(THE BENGAL DECENNIAL SETTLEMENT REGULATION, 1793).¹

[1st May, 1793.]

A Regulation for re-enacting, with modifications and amendments, the rules for the Decennial Settlement of the public revenue payable from the lands of the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, passed for those Provinces respectively on the 18th September, 1789; the 25th November, 1789; and the 10th February, 1790, and subsequent dates.

1-3. [Re-enactment of code of rules passed on 23rd November, 1791; term of settlement; to be perpetual with approbation of Court of Directors.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (16 of 1874.)

4. The settlement under certain restrictions and exceptions hereafter specified, shall be concluded with the actual proprietors of the soil, of whatever denomination, whether zamindars, talukdars or chaudris.

Settlement with whom to be concluded.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sec. III.—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), s. 3, to be in force in the Scheduled Districts of Góspára (excluding the Eastern Duárs) and Sylhet—see Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B.

5-12. [What talukdars to be actual proprietors ; payment of rent through actual proprietors ; what talukdars to be leaseholders ; jangal-buri talukdars ; proprietors of malguzari aima lands ; rules for guidance of Collectors, right of dissatisfied parties to sue in Court of Diwani Adalat.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (16 of 1874).

Payment of revenue by talukdars ordered to be separated. Separated talukdars where to pay revenue.

13. Talukdars ordered to be separated are not to be permitted to pay the revenue assessed upon their lands through the zamindars or other actual proprietors of estates as heretofore.

14. Talukdars who, in consequence of the rules in sections 5 and 9,¹ may be separated from the zamindars or other actual proprietors of estates, through whom they heretofore paid their revenues, are to pay their revenue in future immediately into the Collector's² treasury ; except in districts where, from the number of taluks or other cause, this mode would be attended with considerable inconvenience, in which case tahsildars, or Native Collectors, are to be appointed to receive the revenue of the taluks in such districts.

Tahsildars.

15. Zamindars or other actual proprietors of land, from whose zamindaries or estates, taluks may be separated, shall not be appointed tahsildars to receive the revenue of the taluks so separated, but the office of tahsildar shall, in every instance, be given to some other person of character and responsibility, and the whole expense of it is to be defrayed by Government.

16-18. [Rules respecting mukarrari leases and mukarraridars.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1876 (12 of 1876).

[¹] Sections 5 and 9 were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), but this reference is saved by the proviso to that Act. The sections are as follows :—

"5. First.—The talukdars to be considered the actual proprietors of the lands composing the taluks are the following :—

Second.—Talukdars who purchased their lands by private or at public sale, or obtained them by gift from the zamindar or other actual proprietor of land to whom they now pay the revenue assessed upon their taluks, or from his ancestors, subject to the payment of the established dues of Government, and who received deeds of sale, or gift of such land, from the zamindar, or sanads from the Khalsa, making over to them his proprietary rights therein.

Third.—Talukdars, whose taluks were formed before the zamindar or other actual proprietor of land to whom they now pay their revenue, or his ancestors, succeeded to the zamindari.

Fourth.—Talukdars, the lands comprised in whose taluks were never the property of the zamindar or other actual proprietor of the soil to whom they now pay their revenue, or his ancestors.

Fifth.—Talukdars who have succeeded to taluks of the nature of those described in the preceding clauses, by right of purchase, gift or inheritance, from the former proprietor of such taluks.

"9. The rules in section 5, respecting taluks, have also been extended to aima lands liable to the payment of a fixed quit revenue, denominated malguzari aimas ; and, agreeably to the distinctions laid down in that section, it has been ordered, that such malguzari aima tenures as are held under grants of the Muhammadan government previous to the Company's accession to the Diwani, or which have been since granted by proprietors of estates for a consideration received by them, are to be separated from the proprietors to whom their revenue is now paid, as coming within the spirit of the rules for the separation of talukdars who are proprietors of the lands composing their taluks. But malguzari aima tenures which may appear to have been bona fide granted for the purpose of bringing waste-lands into cultivation shall continue included in the estates to which they are now annexed, as coming within the rules in section 8, respecting jangal-buri taluks."

² In Assam, the Deputy Commissioner.

19. Determination of agreement to jama of undivided estates.

26. The determination of the majority of the proprietors present under the restrictions specified in section 23, ¹ is also to be binding on the remainder, in agreeing or disagreeing to the jama proposed for undivided estates. The sharers, however, if dissatisfied, may obtain a division of their lands and a proportionate allotment of the revenue assessed thereon, but at their own expense.

Settlement of land standing in joint names of several proprietors, or of one for many.

27. When a portion of land stands in the joint names of several proprietors, or of one for many, but each proprietor has his separate share in his own possession and management, or in that of an agent for him, the settlement is to be made for each share with the person in possession, and his land is to be held exclusively responsible for the revenue assessed upon it.

28-29. [Settlement of mortgaged lands; settlement when proprietors are not forthcoming.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1876 (12 of 1876).

Settlement of disputed estates.

30. Where the property in lands is disputed, the settlement is to be made with the proprietor in possession, under an express declaration that he is nevertheless liable to the claims upon the estate, which is to be transferable to any other person to whom the property may be subsequently adjudged.

If no claimant has been previously in possession.

31. If a case should occur in which none of the claimants shall have been previously in possession, they are to be allowed to appoint a manager until their claims shall have been determined in the Diwání Adálat of the zila: but, if they should not agree to a manager, the lands are to be held khas, and the surplus produce, after discharging the revenue, is to be kept in deposit, until the right of property shall be adjudged.

Settlement in cases of disputes as to boundaries.

32. Where disputes exist concerning the boundaries of land, they are to be left to be adjusted in the Diwání Adálat, and the settlement is to be made in the meantime for the lands in possession of the disputing parties respectively.

33. [Rules for fixing assessment.] Rep. by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903.)

Allowances of kázis and kánungos, and public pensions, to be added to the jama.

34. The allowances of the kázis and kánungos heretofore paid by the landholders, as well as any public pensions hitherto paid through the landholders, are to be added to the amount of the jama, and in future paid by the Collectors ^[2] of the revenue of the several zilas, on the part of Government, under the rules and restrictions laid down for their guidance, with regard to such payments, in the Resolutions passed by the Governor General in Council

“23. Where more proprietors than one possess an undivided estate, and the whole of them be not within the description of disqualified landholders specified in section 20, the settlement is to be made with them jointly, and they are to be required to elect a sarbarádkar or manager, who shall have the exclusive management of their lands during the continuance of his appointment. The determination of the majority of the proprietors or of the majority of those present in the event of the absence of any is to be binding on the remainder in the choice of a manager; and, when the votes of the proprietors are equal, the election of the manager is to be determined by the greater interest of the proprietors in the property. If in any case the interest also be equal, the manager is to be appointed by the Board of Revenue.”

on the 10th June, 1791, and re-enacted, with modifications, by Regulation 24 1793. [1]

35. The assessment is to be fixed exclusive and independent of all duties, taxes and other collections, known under the general denomination of sáir; the collections made in the ganjes, háths and bázárs situated within the limits of the town of Calcutta excepted, and excepting also the collections confirmed to the proprietors and holders of ganjes, bázárs and háths by the Resolutions passed by the Governor General in Council on the 11th of June, 1790.

Assessment to be fixed, exclusive of sáir, with exceptions.

* * * * *

36. The assessment is also to be fixed exclusive and independent of all existing lákhiraj lands, whether exempted from the khiraj (or public revenue) with or without due authority.

Also exclusive of lákhiraj lands.

37. The above exemption, however, is not meant to include the málikána lands in Bihar, or the nánkár, khamar, nij jot and other private lands of the zamindars and independent talukdars or other actual proprietors of land in Bengal and Midnapur regarding which the following rules have been prescribed.

But not of málikána lands in Bihar or other lands in Midnapur.

38. [Málikána lands in Bihar to be re-annexed. Omitted, as being inapplicable to Assam.]

39. The nánkár, khamar, nijjot, and other private lands appropriated by the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land in Bengal and Orissa to the subsistence of themselves and families shall be also annexed to the malguzári lands, and the ten years' jama fixed upon the whole under the following modification; that such proprietors as may decline to engage for their lands be allowed the option of retaining possession of their private lands above specified, upon the terms on which they have hitherto possessed them, provided they shall prove, to the satisfaction of the Board of Revenue³ that they held them under a similar tenure previous to the 12th August, 1765, the date of the grant of the Diwáni to the Company, and have hitherto been permitted to keep possession of them, whenever their zamindaris or estates have been held khas or let in farm, but not otherwise.

Nánkár, khamar, nij jot and other private lands of proprietors in Bengal and Orissa to be annexed to the malguzar lands.

In the event of such proof, and of their availing themselves of the option above given to retain possession of their private lands, a deduction, adequate to the neat produce of such lands, is to be made from the amount of the allowance fixed for excluded proprietors by section 44.⁴

² The second sentence of s. 35, which was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), is omitted.

⁴ Section 44 was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), but this reference is saved by the proviso to that Act. The section ran as follows:—

"44. Proprietors who may finally decline engaging for the jama proposed to them, and whose lands may consequently be let in farm or held khas, are to receive Málikána (an allowance in consideration of their proprietary rights) at the rate of 10 per cent on the said jama of their lands if let in farm, or at the same rate on the neat collections from their lands, if held khas, viz., on the neat amount realized by Government, after defraying the málikána as well as all other charges. But of this allowance, however, a provision is to be made for such persons belonging to the families of the proprietors as may be entitled thereto."

Consolidation of málguzári and private lands also in certain taluks.

40. The above consolidation of the málguzári and private lands is also to be made in the taluks continued under the proprietors on whom they have hitherto been dependent; not, however, with a view of increasing the rents of the talukdars, but in order to make the whole of the lands composing their taluks answerable for their proportion of the public assessment allotted thereon.

Chákarán annexed to málguzári lands.

41. The chákarán lands, or lands held by public officers and private servants in lieu of wages, are also not meant to be included in the exception contained in section 36. The whole of these lands in each Province are to be annexed to the málguzári lands and declared responsible for the public revenue assessed on the zamindaris, independent taluks or other estates in which they are included, in connection with all other málguzári lands therein.

42. [Engagements for the jama to be for Sicca rupees.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (16 of 1874).

Procedure in case of land-holders declining to engage for jama proposed to them.

43. In the event of any proprietor declining to engage for the settlement of his lands at the jama proposed to him, the Collector¹ is to communicate the objections offered, with his opinion respecting them, to the Board of Revenue.²

That Board² is to determine the proper assessment after making such further inquiries as they may think necessary, and the objecting proprietor is to be required to engage for such assessment without further delay; and in the event of his refusal, which is to be given in writing, his lands are to be let in farm or held khas, as the Board of Revenue^[2] may in each instance think most expedient.

44-47. [Proprietors refusing to engage for the jama to receive málíkáná; rules respecting payment of málíkáná and enforcement of payment from farmers.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (16 of 1874).

48. [Settlement by proprietors with talukdars under them.] Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1876 (12 of 1876).

Certain istimrárdars not liable to increase of rent.

49. It is to be understood, however, that istimrárdars (mukarraridars) of the nature of those described in section 18,³ who have held their land at a fixed rent for more than twelve years, are not liable to be assessed with any increase, either by the officers of Government or by the zamindar or other actual proprietor of land, should he engage for his own lands.

² In Assam, the Chief Commissioner—see the Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam Laws Act, 1912, (VII of 1912), s. 3 and Sch. D., Pt. III, post.

³ S. 18 was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1876 (XII of 1876), but this reference is saved by the proviso to that Act. The section ran as follows:—

"18. Mukarraridars holding lands of which they are not the actual proprietors and whose Mukarrari grants have been obtained since the Company's accession to the Diwani, and never received the sanction of the Supreme Government, are to be dispossessed, and the settlement is to be made with the actual proprietors of the soil under this Regulation.

In cases, however, where such mukarraridars have been in possession of their mukarraris for a term exceeding twelve years, they are to receive during their lives (subject to the pleasure of the Honourable Court of Directors) the difference between the jama at which they held the lands and that which may be now agreed to by the actual proprietors, added to the neat produce of the authorised sáir, resumed or abolished."

With regard to such istimrardárs also as have not held their lands at a fixed rent for so long a period, if the zamindar or other actual proprietor of land has bound himself by the deed which he may have executed not to lay any increase upon them, he shall not be allowed to infringe the conditions of the deed for his own benefit, but must confine his demands to the rent he may have voluntarily agreed to receive.

50. This last restriction imposed on the zamindar or other actual proprietor of land, in section 49, is not to be considered to preclude the officer of Government or farmer, in the event of the zamindari being held khas or let in farm, from assessing such istimrardárs according to the general rate of the district. Exception to above.

51. The following rules are prescribed to prevent undue exaction from the dependent talukdars :— Rules to prevent undue exactions from talukdars.

First.—No zamindar or other actual proprietor of land shall demand an increase^[1] from the talukdars dependent on him, although he should himself be subject to the payment of an increase of jama to Government ; except upon proof that he is entitled so to do, either by the special custom of the district, or by the conditions under which the talukdar holds his tenure ; or that the talukdar, by receiving abatements from his jama, has subjected himself to the payment of the increase demanded, and that the lands are capable of affording it.

Second.—If, in any instance, it be proved that a zamindar or other actual proprietor of land exacts more from a talukdar than he has a right to, the Court shall adjudge him to pay a penalty of double the amount of such exaction, with all costs of suit, to the party injured.

52. The zamindar or other actual proprietor of land is to let the remaining lands of his zamindari or estate, under the prescribed restrictions, in whatever manner he may think proper ; but every engagement contracted with under-farmers shall be specific as to the amount and conditions of it ; and all sums received by any actual proprietor of land or any farmer of land, of whatever description, over and above what is specified in the engagements of the persons paying the same, shall be considered as extorted, and be repaid with a penalty of double the amount. The restrictions prescribed and referred to in this section are the following : Power of actual proprietor to let remaining lands as they think proper.

53. No person contracting with a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor or employed by him in the management of the collections shall be authorised to take charge of the lands or collections without an ámináma, or written commission, signed by such zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor. Lands so let not to be taken charge of without ámináma.

54. The impositions upon the raiyats, under the denomination of abwáb, mathat and other appellations, from their number and uncertainty having become intricate to adjust, and a source of oppression to the raiyats, all pro- Process to prevent imposition on raiyats under denomination of abwáb, mathat, etc.

prietors of land and dependent talukdars shall revise the same, in concert with the raiyats, and consolidate the whole with the assal into one specific sum.

In large zamindaris or estates the proprietors are to commence this simplification of the rents of their raiyats in the parganas where the impositions are most numerous, and to proceed in it gradually till completed; but so that it be effected for the whole of their lands by the end of the Bengal year 1198¹ in the Bengal districts, and of the Fasli and Wilayati year 1198 in the Bihar and Orissa Districts, these being the periods fixed for the delivery of pattas, as hereafter specified.

Proprietors and farmers of land prohibited imposing new abwáb or mathat on raiyats.

55. No actual proprietor of land or dependent talukdar or farmer of land, of whatever description, shall impose any new abwáb or mathat upon the raiyats under any pretence whatever.

Every exaction of this nature shall be punished by a penalty equal to three times the amount imposed; and if, at any future period, it be discovered that new abwáb or mathat have been imposed, the person imposing the same shall be liable to this penalty for the entire period of such impositions.

heritance of landed property subject to the payment of revenue to Government.

Preamble.

1. A custom, originating in considerations of financial convenience, was established in these Provinces under the Native Administrations, according to which some of the most extensive zamindaris are not liable to division.

Upon the death of the proprietor of one of these states it devolves entire to the eldest son or next heir of the deceased, to the exclusion of all other sons or relations.

This custom is repugnant both to the Hindu and Muhammadan laws, which annexed to primogeniture no exclusive right of succession to landed property, and consequently subversive of the rights of those individuals who would be entitled to a share of the estates in question were the established laws of inheritance allowed to operate with regard to them as well as all other estates.

It likewise tends to prevent the general improvement of the country, from the proprietors of these large estates not having the means, or being unable to bestow the attention, requisite for bringing into cultivation the extensive tracts of waste-land comprised in them.

For the above reasons, and as the limitation of the public demand upon the estates of individuals as they now exist, and the rules prescribed for apportioning the amount of it on the several shares of any estates which may be divided, obviate the objections and inconveniences that might have arisen from such divisions when the public demand was liable to annual or frequent variation, the Governor General in Council has enacted the following rules :

BENGAL REGULATION 38 OF 1793.

[THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE (BENGAL) LOANS PROHIBITION REGULATION, 1793.]¹

[1st May, 1793.]

A Regulation for re-enacting, with modifications, such part of the Rule passed on the 27th June, 1787, as prohibits covenanted Civil Servants of the Company employed in the administration of justice or the collection of the public revenue lending money to zamindars, independent talukdars or other actual proprietors of land, or dependent talukdars or farmers of land holding farms immediately of Government, or the under-farmers or raiyats of the several descriptions of proprietors and farmers of land above-mentioned, or their respective sureties * * * ².

Preamble.

1. At an early period after the establishment of the British Government in this country the servants of the Company employed in the administration of justice and the collection of revenue were prohibited from lending money to the landholders and farmers, and others concerned in the collection or payment of the revenue, in order to guard against the abuses that the powers with which they were invested would have enabled them to practise had they been permitted to engage in such transactions with individuals subject to their official control and authority.

This rule was incorporated with the Judicial Regulations passed on the 5th July, 1781, and has since continued in force.

* * * * *

The rules above-mentioned are hereby re-enacted with modifications.

2. BENGAL REGULATION 10 OF 1800.

(THE BENGAL INHERITANCE REGULATION, 1800).⁷

[11th December, 1800.]

A Regulation for preventing the division of landed estates in the Jangul Mahals of the Zila of Midnapur and other Districts.

Preamble.

1. By Regulation 11, 1793⁸ the estates of proprietors of land dying intestate are declared liable to be divided among the heirs of the deceased agreeably to the Hindu or Muhammadan laws.

A custom, however, having been found to prevail in the jangul mahals of Midnapur and other districts, by the which the succession to landed estates, invariably devolves to a single heir without the division of the property, and this custom having been long established, and being founded in certain circumstances of local convenience which still exist, the Governor General in Council has enacted the following rule to be in force in the Provinces of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa from the date of its promulgation.

¹ The words "or, if the deceased were an European, in the Calcutta Gazette," which were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), are omitted.

² These words were substituted by the Decentralization Act, 1914 (IV of 1914), Sch. Part III.

³ For the present law as to the Court of Wards in Eastern Bengal and Assam, see the Court of Wards Act, 1879 (Ben. Act IX of 1879), post.

⁷ SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III, —see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), section 3, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—

the District of Goálpára (excluding the Eastern Duárs)—see Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B.

2. Regulation 11, 1793¹ shall not be considered to supersede or affect any established usage which may have obtained in the jangul mahals of Midnapur and other districts, by which the succession to landed estates, the proprietor of which may die intestate, has hitherto been considered to devolve to a single heir, to the exclusion of the other heirs of the deceased.

Regulation 11, 1793, not to operate in jangul mahals of Midnapur, and other districts.

In the mahals in question the local custom of the country shall be continued in full force as heretofore, and the Courts of Justice be guided by it in the decision of all claims which may come before them to the inheritance of landed property situated in those mahals.

The Collector¹ shall at the same time depute a creditable Native officer to accompany the troops through his jurisdiction, for the purpose of aiding in procuring the necessary supplies and of facilitating the march of the troops.

² The words "The Commanding Officer will at the same time communicate to the Magistrates of the zilas through which the troops are to pass the probable time of the arrival of the troops within their respective jurisdictions," which were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), are omitted.

⁴ This Regulation has been repealed as to coolies—see footnote on page 41, ante.

4. First.—Whenever a detachment of troops or single corps shall be provided with boats, temporary bridges or other accommodations by any landholder, farmer, tahsildar or other person, conformably to the orders of the Collector¹ of the zila, for the purpose of crossing the troops and their baggage over rivers or nalas, the commanding officer of such detachment or corps will grant a certificate to the persons furnishing the same, specifying the number of boats and persons employed, the barthen of each boat, and how long employed on the public service.

Account and vouchers to be sent by Collector with his report to Governor General.

After the account shall have undergone the examination and report prescribed for all military contingent charges, the² [Local Government] will pass such final order as may appear proper.

Second.—If the proprietor, farmer, tenant or manager, after receiving such certificate, shall consider himself entitled to compensation, he will be at liberty to present the statement of his claim, with the commanding officer's certificate thereon, to the Collector¹ of the zila (either in person or by his vakil) within ten days from the date of the certificate; but no claim of his description shall be received by the Collector¹ after the expiration of that period, unless the person preferring it shall assign good and satisfactory reason for the delay.

The Collector,¹ on receiving a statement of damage and the commanding officer's certificate thereon within the prescribed period, or afterwards if sufficient reason be assigned for the delay, shall forthwith adopt such measures as may appear requisite to ascertain whether or not the claim be well founded; and shall report his proceedings to the Board of Revenue,² accompanied by his opinion on the merits of the claim, for the consideration and orders of Government.

It is, however, declared that no claim will be received unless accompanied by the prescribed certificate of the commanding officer of the troops by whom the damage may be stated to have been committed; excepting in instances in which the claimant can show good and sufficient cause for not having obtained such certificate.

In such cases, if the Collector¹ shall be satisfied with the cause assigned by the claimant for not having obtained the prescribed certificate, he shall transmit the petition and statement of the claimant to the officer commanding the troops by whom the damage may be stated to have been committed, and shall wait his reply thereto previously to determining whether or not the claim be entitled to investigation.

6. Immediately on receiving the notification mentioned in section 2, the Magistrates shall transmit orders to the several police-darogas or other local officers of the police through whose jurisdiction the troops are to pass to afford every assistance in their power to facilitate the march of the troops through their respective jurisdictions; and to co-operate, as far as necessary, with the person deputed on the part of the Collector¹ in procuring the requisite supplies, as well as in adjusting any disputes which may arise respecting the prices of the articles furnished, and in preventing any alarm to the inhabitants of the country.

In like manner, the Collectors¹ are directed to report to the Board of Revenue², * * *³, any complaints which may be made to them of the misbehaviour of the troops, when such complaints shall appear to be well founded and of sufficient importance to require communication to Government.

[18th July, 1812.

A Regulation to empower the ³ [Local Government] to order the removal of emigrants from foreign countries, and their descendants from any place in the vicinity of the frontier of the State from which they may have emigrated; and, in certain cases, to place and detain any such persons in safe custody; and likewise to provide for the trial of emigrants and their descendants who may excite disturbances in the countries from which they may have emigrated, and of persons aiding them in the prosecution of such attempts.

² SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), s. 3, to be in force in Assam (except the North Lushai Hills)—see Vol. II. Appendix I, Table B. It is not in force in the Lushai Hills; see Vol. II, App II, Table D.

and ordinarily denominated Muggs, have from time to time emigrated from that country and established themselves in that part of the district of Chittagong which lies contiguous to the Arakan frontier;

And whereas numbers of those persons, or of their descendants, abusing the protection which had been afforded to them in the British territories, have excited disturbances, and even levied war in the country of Arakan against the Government of Ava,¹ of which State Arakan is now a dependency, and have conducted themselves in a manner manifestly tending to disturb the relations of amity which subsist between the British Government and the Government of Ava;¹

And whereas it is, in consequence, necessary that the ² [Local Government] should possess legal powers to remove the said bodies of emigrants and their descendants from the frontier of the territory of Arakan, or any other bodies of aliens, or their descendants, from the vicinity of the country from which they may have emigrated, and likewise to detain in confinement any of those persons, or any other individuals being Natives of foreign countries, or their descendants, for offences of the above nature actually committed by them in the territories of the State from which they may have emigrated;

And whereas it is necessary to make provision for the trial of persons committing, or aiding in the commission of, the said offences;

The following rules have been passed, to be in force from the period of their promulgation throughout the territories immediately dependent on the Presidency of Fort William:

2. Whenever the ² [Local Government], upon due investigation, shall be satisfied that the emigrants from Arakan, or emigrants from any other State, who may have sought an asylum in the British territories, or the descendants of any of the said emigrants, shall have abused the protection afforded to them, by attempts to excite disturbances in the State from which they or their ancestors may have emigrated, it shall be competent to the ² [Local Government] to order the removal of those persons to such other part or parts of the country as may be judged most convenient for their future residence.

In like manner it shall be competent to the ² [Local Government] to order such removal whenever ³ [it] may have grounds to be satisfied that the residence of any body of aliens, or their descendants, in the vicinity of the frontier of the country from which they or their ancestors may have emigrated, is likely to cause any serious misunderstanding between that State and the British Government.

¹ The Government of Ava has ceased to exist, its territories having been annexed to the British dominions. The territories are now known as "Upper Burma."

Provided, however, that if they shall nevertheless retain the right to any real property at the period of their actual removal, it shall be competent to the ¹[Local Government] to order such property to be sold by public auction under the superintendence of the Collector ²of the district.

BENGAL REGULATION 3 OF 1818.

(THE BENGAL STATE PRISONERS REGULATION, 1818).⁵

[7th April, 1818.]

A Regulation for the confinement of State prisoners.

1. WHEREAS reasons of State, embracing the due maintenance of the Preamble alliances formed by the British Government with foreign Powers, the preservation of tranquillity in the territories of Native Princes entitled to its protection, and the security of the British dominions from foreign hostility and from internal commotion, occasionally render it necessary to place under personal restraint individuals against whom there may not be sufficient ground to institute any judicial proceeding, or when such proceeding may not be adapted to the nature of the case, or may for other reasons be unadvisable or improper :

¹ The words "of Circuit" which were repealed by the same Act, are omitted.

² These words in square brackets were substituted for the words "to the Nizamut Adalat, who will recommend to the Governor General in Council such alleviation of the prescribed punishment as they may judge proper" by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. II—see post.

⁵ SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), section 3, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely :—

the Districts of Cachar, Darrang, the Garo Hills, Goalpara, Kamrup, the Khási and Jaintia Hills, Lakhimpur, the Nágá Hills (including the Mokokchung Sub-division), Nowgong, Sibságar and Sylhet—see Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B.

The application of the Regulation is barred in the Lushai Hills by notification—see Vol. II, Appendix II, Table D.

and whereas it is fit that, in every case of the nature herein referred to the determination to be taken should proceed immediately from the authority of the Governor General in Council ;

and whereas the ends of justice require that, when it may be determined that any person shall be placed under personal restraint, otherwise than in pursuance of some judicial proceeding, the grounds of such determination should from time to time come under revision, and the person affected thereby should at all times be allowed freely to bring to the notice of the Governor General in Council all circumstances relating either to the supposed grounds of such determination, or to the manner in which it may be executed ; and whereas the ends of justice also require that due attention be paid to the health of every State prisoner confined under this Regulation, and that suitable provision be made for his support according to his rank in life, and to his own wants and those of his family ;

and whereas the reasons above declared sometimes render it necessary that the estates and lands of zamindars, talukdars and others situated within the territories dependent on the Presidency of Fort William should be attached and placed under the temporary management of the Revenue authorities without having recourse to any judicial proceeding ;

and whereas it is desirable to make such legal provisions as may secure from injury the just rights and interest of individuals whose estates may be so attached under the direct authority of Government ;

the Vice-President in Council has enacted the following rules, which are to take effect, throughout the provinces immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William, from the date on which they may be promulgated.

soners.

2. First.—When the reasons stated in the preamble of this Regulation may seem to the Governor General in Council to require that an individual should be placed under personal restraint, without any immediate view to ulterior proceedings of a judicial nature, a warrant of commitment under the authority of the Governor General in Council, and under the hand of the Chief Secretary, or of one of the Secretaries to Government, shall be issued to the officer in whose custody such person is to be placed.

Form of warrant.

Second.—The warrant of commitment shall be in the following form :—

Representations by State prisoners to be submitted to Government.

6. Every officer in whose custody any State prisoner may be placed shall, as soon after taking such prisoner into his custody as may be practicable, report to the Governor General in Council whether the degree of confinement to which he may be subjected appears liable to injure his health, and whether the allowance fixed for his support be adequate to the supply of his own wants and those of his family, according to their rank in life. Report to Government regarding confinement, etc., of prisoners.

7. Every officer in whose custody any State prisoner may be placed shall take care that the allowance fixed for the support of such State prisoner is duly appropriated to that object. Appropriation of allowance for support of State prisoners.

Attachment of estates by order of Government without decision of Court.

9. Whenever the Governor General in Council, for the reasons declared in the preamble to this Regulation, shall judge it necessary to attach the estates or lands of any zamindar, jágirdar, talukdar, or other person, without any previous decision of a Court of Justice or other judicial proceeding, the grounds on which the Resolution of Government may have been adopted, and such other information connected with the case as may appear essential, shall be communicated, under the hand of one of the Secretaries to Government, to the Judge and Magistrate of the district in which the lands or estates may be situated, ¹ [and] to * * * ² the sadar Diwáni Adálat and Nizamat Adálat.

10. First.—The lands or estates which may be so temporarily attached shall be held under the management of the officers of Government in the Revenue Department; and the collections shall be made and adjudged on the same principles as those of other estates held under khas management.

Attached lands not liable to sale in execution.

Second.—Such lands or estates shall not be liable to be sold in execution of decrees of the Civil Courts, or for the realization of fines or otherwise, during the period in which they may be so held under attachment.

Third.—In the cases mentioned in the preceding clause, the Government will make such arrangement as may be fair and equitable for the satisfaction of the decrees of the Civil Courts.

Rules as to cases where Government orders release of estate from attachment.

11. Whenever the Governor General in Council shall be of opinion that the circumstances which rendered the attachment of such estate necessary have ceased to operate, and that the management of the estate can be committed to the hands of the proprietor without public hazard or inconvenience, the Revenue-authorities will be directed to release the estate from attachment, to adjust the accounts of the collections during the period in which they may have been superintended by the officers of Government, and to pay over to the proprietor the profits from the estate which may have accumulated during the attachment.

BENGAL REGULATION 8 OF 1819.

(THE BENGAL PATNI TALUKS REGULATION, 1819.)¹

[3rd September, 1819].

A Regulation to declare the validity of certain tenures, and to define the relative rights of zamindars and patni talukdars; also to establish a process for the sale of such taluks in satisfaction of the zamindar's demand of rent

Preamble.

1. By the rules of the perpetual settlement,³ proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government, that is, the individual answerable to Government for the revenue then assessed on the different mahals were declared to be entitled to make any arrangements for the leasing of their lands in taluk or otherwise that they might deem most conducive to their interests.

By the rules of Regulation 44, 1793,⁴ however, all such arrangements were subjected to two limitations; first, that the jama or rent should not be fixed for a period exceeding ten years; and, secondly, that in case of a sale for Government arrears, such leases or arrangements should stand cancelled from the day of sale.

The provisions of section 2, Regulation 44, 1793,⁴ by which the period of all fixed engagements for rent was limited to ten years, have been rescinded by section 2, Regulation 5, 1812⁵; and in Regulation 18⁶ of the same year, it is more distinctly declared that zamindars are at liberty to grant taluks or other leases of their lands, fixing the rent in perpetuity at their discretion, subject, however, to the liability of being dissolved on sale of the grantor's estate for arrears of the Government revenue in the same manner as heretofore.

In practice, the grant of taluks and other leases at a rent fixed in perpetuity had been common with the zamindars of Bengal for some time before the passing of the two Regulations last mentioned, but, notwithstanding the abrogation of the rule which declared such arrangements null and void, and the abandonment of all intention or desire to have it enforced as a security to the Government revenue in the manner originally contemplated, it was omitted to declare in the rules of Regulations 5¹ and 18¹ of 1812, or in any other Regulations, whether tenures at the time in existence and held, under covenants or engagements entered into by the parties in violation of the rule of section 2, Regulation 44, 1793² should, if called in question, be deemed invalid and void as heretofore.

This point it has been deemed necessary to set at rest by a general declaration of the validity of any tenures that may be now in existence, notwithstanding that they may have been granted at a rent fixed in perpetuity, or for a longer term than ten years, while the rule fixing this limitation to the term of all such engagements, and declaring null and void any granted in contravention thereto, was in force.

Furthermore, in the exercise of the privilege thus conceded to zamindars under direct engagements with Government, there has been created a tenure which had its origin on the estates of the Raja of Burdwan, but has since been extended to other zamindaris; the character of which tenure is that it is a taluk created by the zamindar, to be held at a rent fixed in perpetuity by the lessee and his heirs for ever; the tenant is called upon to furnish collateral security for the rent, and for his conduct generally, or he is excused from this obligation at the zamindars' discretion; but even if the original tenant be excused, still, in case of sale for arrears, or other operation leading to the introduction of another tenant, such new incumbent has always in practice been liable to be so called upon at the option of the zamindar.

By the terms also of the engagements interchanged, it is amongst other stipulations provided that, in case of an arrear occurring, the tenure may be brought to sale by the zamindar, and, if the sale do not yield a sufficient amount to make good the balance of rent at the time due, the remaining property of the defaulter shall be further answerable for the demand.

These tenures have usually been denominated patni taluks, and it has been a common practice of the holders of them to underlet on precisely similar terms to other persons, who on taking such leases went by the name of darpatani talukdars: these again sometimes similarly underlet to sepatnidárs; and the conditions of all the title-deeds vary in nothing material from the original engagements executed by the first holder.

In these engagements, however, it is not stipulated whether the sale thus reserved to himself by the grantor is for his own benefit, or for that of the tenant; that is, whether, in case the proceeds of sale should exceed the zamindar's demand of rent, the tenant would be entitled to such excess; neither is the manner of sale specified, nor do the usages of the country nor the Regulations of Government afford any distinct rules by the application of which to the specific cases the defects above alluded to could be supplied or the points of doubt and difficulty involved in the omission be brought to determination in a consistent and uniform manner.

The tenures in question have extended through several zilas of Bengal, and the mischiefs which have arisen from the want of a consistent rule of action for the guidance of the Courts of Civil Judicature in regard to them have been productive of such confusion as to demand the interference of the legislature: it has accordingly been deemed necessary to regulate and define the nature of the property given and acquired on the creation of a patni taluk as above described, also to declare the legality of the practice of under-letting in the manner in which it has been exercised by patnidars and others, establishing at the same time such provisions as have appeared calculated to protect the under-lessee from any collusion of his immediate superior with the zamindar or other, for his ruin, as well as to secure the just rights of the zamindar on the sale of any tenure under the stipulations of the original engagements entered into with him.

It has further been deemed indispensable to fix the process by which the said tenures are to be brought to sale, and the form and manner of conducting such sale; and whereas the estates of zamindars under engagements with Government are liable to be brought to sale at any time for an arrear in the revenue payable by monthly kists to Government, it has seemed just to allow any zamindar who may have granted tenures with a stipulation of the right to sell for arrears the opportunity of availing himself of this means of realizing his dues in the middle of the year, as well as at the close, instead of only at the end of the Bengal year, [1] as heretofore allowed by the Regulations in force; it has further been deemed equitable to extend this rule to all cases in which the right of sale may have been reserved, even though, in conformity with the Regulations heretofore in force, the stipulation for sale contained in the engagements interchanged may have restricted such sale to the case of a demand of rent remaining unpaid at the close of the Bengal year.¹

¹ i.e., the month of Chaitra, which corresponds with the last part of March and the first part of April.

² The words "It has been likewise deemed advisable to explain and modify some of the existing rules for the collection of rents, with a view to render them more efficacious than at present, as well as to provide against sundry means of evasion now resorted to by defaulters, which were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

The following rules have accordingly been enacted by His Excellency the Most Noble, the Governor General in Council, to take effect from the date of their promulgation throughout the several districts of the Province of Bengal, including Midnapur.

2. It is hereby declared that any leases or engagements for the fixing of rent now in existence that may have been granted or concluded for a term of years or in perpetuity by a proprietor under engagements with Government, or other person competent to grant the same, shall be deemed good and valid tenures, according to the terms of the covenants or engagements interchanged notwithstanding that the same may have been executed before the passing of Regulation 5, 1812,¹ and while the rule of section 2, Regulation 44, 1793,² which limited the period for which it was lawful to grant such engagements to ten years, and declared all that might be entered into for a longer term to be null and void, was in full force and effect; and notwithstanding that the stipulations of the said leases may be in violation of the rule in question:

Leases fixing rent in perpetuity or for more than ten years, valid, though executed while section 2, Regulation 44, 1793, was in force.

Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be held to exempt any tenures held under engagements from proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government from the liability to be cancelled on sale of the said estates for arrears of the said revenue, * * *³ unless especially exempted from such liability by the rule in question, or by any other specific rule of the Regulations in force.

3. First.—The tenures known by the name of patni taluks, as described in the preamble to this Regulation, shall be deemed to be valid tenures in perpetuity, according to the terms of the engagements under which they are held. They are heritable by their conditions; and it is hereby further declared that they are capable of being transferred by sale, gift or otherwise, at the discretion of the holder, as well as answerable for his personal debts, and subject to the process of the Courts of Judicature, in the same manner as other real property.

Patni tenures declared valid, transferable and answerable for debt.

Second.—Patni talukdars are hereby declared to possess the right of letting out the lands composing their taluks in any manner they may deem most conducive to their interest; and any engagements so entered into by such talukdars with others shall be legal and binding between the parties to the same, their heirs and assignees:

Patnidars' right of under-letting.

Provided, however, that no such engagements shall operate to the prejudice of the right of the zamindar to hold the superior tenure answerable for any arrear of his rent, in the estate in which he granted it, and free of all incumbrance resulting from the act of his tenant.

¹ The Bengal Land-revenue Sales Regulation, 1812. It is repealed in Assam, see Reg. I of 1886, s. 2, post.

² Ben. Reg. XLIV of 1793 was repealed by Act XXIX of 1871.

³ The words and figures "under the rule of section 5, Regulation XLIV of 1793," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874, (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

Patni tenure
for arrears.

Third.—In case of an arrear occurring upon any tenure of the description alluded to in the first clause of this section, it shall not be liable to be cancelled for the same; *¹ but the tenure shall be brought to sale by public auction, and the holder of the tenure will be entitled to any excess in the proceeds of such sale beyond the amount of the arrear of rent due, subject, however, to the provisions contained in section 17 of this Regulation.

ures under in section 3.

4. If the holder of a patni taluk shall have underlet in such manner as to have conveyed a similar interest to that enjoyed by himself, as explained in the preamble to this Regulation, the holder of such a tenure shall be deemed to have acquired all the rights and immunities declared in the preceding section to attach to patni taluks, in so far as concerns the grantor of such under-tenure.

The same construction shall also hold in the case of patni taluks of the third or fourth decree.

Zamindar not to refuse to give effect to transfer;

5. The right of alienation having been declared to vest in the holder of a patni taluk, it shall not be competent to the zamindar or other superior to refuse to register, and otherwise to give effect to such alienations, by discharging the party transferring his interest from personal responsibility and, by accepting the engagements of the transferee.

but may demand fee

In conformity, however, with established usage, the zamindar or other superior shall be entitled to exact a fee upon every such alienation; and the rate of the said fee is hereby fixed at two per cent on the jama or annual rent of the interest transferred, until the same shall amount to one hundred rupees, which sum shall be the maximum of any fee to be exacted on this account.

and security.

The zamindar shall also be entitled to demand substantial security from the transferee or purchaser, to the amount of half the jama or yearly rent payable to him from the tenure transferred; the condition of furnishing such security on requisition being understood to be one of the original liabilities of the tenure.

The above rules shall apply equally to the case of a sale made in execution of a decree or judgment of Court, as to all other alienations, but it shall not apply to the case of sale for an arrear in the rent due to the zamindar or other superior, under the rules hereinafter contained.

The purchaser at such a sale shall be entitled to have his name registered and to obtain possession without fee, though of course liable to be called on to give security under the conditions of the tenure purchased.

Zamindar
may refuse ty tendered.

6. It shall be competent to the zamindar or other superior to refuse the registry of any transfer until the fee above stipulated be paid, and until substantial security to the amount specified be tendered and accepted:

¹ The words and figures "under the rule contained in the seventh clause of section 15 Regulation VII, 1799, for leases conveying a limited interest in the land," which were repealed, by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

Provided, however, that if the security tendered by any purchaser or transferee should not be approved by the zamindar, and the party tendering it shall be dissatisfied with such rejection, he shall be competent to appeal therefrom by petition or common motion in the Civil Court of the district, which authority, if satisfied of the sufficiency of the security tendered, shall issue an injunction on the zamindar to accept it and give effect to the transfer without delay.

It is hereby provided that the rules of this and of the preceding section shall not be held to apply to transfers of any fractional portion of a patni taluk, nor to any alienation other than of the entire interest; for no apportionment of the zamindar's reserved rent can be allowed to stand good unless made under his special sanction.

7. In case of the sale of a patni tenure in execution of a judgment of Court, Upon public sale, if security not tendered within one month zamindar may attach. if the purchaser do not, within the period of one month from the sale, conform to the rules of section 5 of this Regulation, in order to obtain the transfer of his tenure by the superior to whom the rent fixed upon it is payable, the zamindar or other superior shall be entitled, of his own authority, to send a sazáwal to attach and hold possession of the tenure until the forms prescribed be observed.

In case also of the sale of a patni tenure for arrears of the rent due upon it, under the rules of this Regulation, if security be required by the zamindar and the purchaser fail to furnish the same within one month of the date of sale, the zamindar shall similarly be entitled to send a sazáwal to attach and hold possession of the interest which may have passed on the sale, to the exclusion of the purchaser, until the prescribed security be given.

Attachments made under this section shall be regarded as trusts for the benefit and at the risk of the purchasers: consequently, after deducting the rent due and the expense of attaching, any surplus that may be yielded by the collections shall be held in deposit for such purchaser: but, if the collections for the time fall short of the rent, the tenure and person of the proprietor shall be liable in the same manner as if no attachment had been made, and the accounts produced by the zamindar or other superior making the attachment shall be received as prima facie evidence to warrant process for an arrear so accruing.

18. First.—Zamindars, that is, proprietors under direct engagements with the Government, shall be entitled to apply in the manner following for periodical sales of any tenures upon which the right of selling or bringing to sale for an arrear of rent may have been specially reserved by stipulation in the engagements interchanged on the creation of the tenure. Zamindars allowed sales of tenures in which right to sell for arrears is reserved.

¹ As to the officer who should conduct sales of tenures of the nature of those described in clause first of section 2 of Ben. Reg. VIII of 1819, see the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1820 (I of 1820), s. 2, post, and the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 (Ben. Act VIII of 1865), s. 3, post.

As to the application of ss. 9, 11, 13, 15 and 17 of Ben. Reg. VIII of 1819 to such sales, see the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1820 (I of 1820), s. 2 (3), post.

The exercise of this power shall not be confined to cases in which the stipulation for sale may have been unrestricted in regard to time, but shall apply equally to tenures held under engagements stipulating merely for a sale at the end of the year, in conformity with the practice heretofore allowed by the Regulations in force.

First sale to be applied for on first of Baisakh.

Second.—On the first day of Baisakh,¹ that is, at the commencement of the following year from that of which the rent is due, the zamindar shall present a petition * * * ² to the Collector ³ containing a specification of any balances that may be due to him on account of the expired year, from all or any talukdars or other holders of an interest of the nature described in the preceding clause of this section.

The same shall then be stuck up in some conspicuous part of the cutcherry with a notice that, if the amount claimed be not paid before the first of Jeth⁴ following, the tenures of the defaulters will on that day be sold by public sale in liquidation.

Should, however, the first of Jeth⁴ fall on a Sunday or holiday, the next subsequent day, not a holiday, shall be selected instead; a similar notice shall be stuck up at the sadar cutcherry of the zamindar himself, and a copy or extract of such part of the notice as may apply to the individual case shall be by him sent to be similarly published at the cutcherry or at the principal town or village upon the land of the defaulter.

The zamindar shall be exclusively answerable for the observance of the forms above prescribed, and the notice required to be sent into the mufassal shall be served by a single peon, who shall bring back the receipt of the defaulter, or of his manager, for the same, or, in the event of inability to procure this, the signatures of three substantial persons residing in the neighbourhood, in attestation of the notice having been brought and published on the spot.

If it shall appear from the tenor of the receipt or attestation in question that the notice has been published at any time previous to the fifteenth of the month of Baisakh, ¹ it shall be sufficient warrant for the sale to proceed upon the day appointed.

In case the people of the village should object or refuse to sign their names in attestation, the peon shall go to the cutcherry of the nearest munsif, or if there should be no munsif, to the nearest thana, and there make voluntary oath of the same having been duly published; certificate to which effect shall be signed and sealed by the said officers and delivered to the peon.

Third.—On the first day of Kartik,⁵ in the middle of the year, the zamindar shall be at liberty to present a similar petition, with a statement of any applied for on first of Kartik.

¹ The month of Baisakh corresponds with the last part of April and the first part of May.

² The words "to the Civil Court of the District, and a similar one," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

balances that may be due on account of the rent of the current year, up to the end of the month of Assin,¹ and to cause similar publication to be made of a sale of the tenures of defaulters, to take place on the first of Aghan,² unless the whole of the advertised balance shall be paid before the date in question, or so much of it as shall reduce the arrear, including any intermediate demand for the month of Kartik,³ to less than one-fourth or a four-anna proportion of the total demand of the zamindar, according to the kisbandi, calculated from the commencement of the year to the last day of Kartik³.

⁴ 9. All sales of saleable tenures applied for under the rules of this Regulation shall be made in public cutcherry; * * *⁵ the land shall be sold to the highest bidder, and every one, not the actual defaulter, shall be free to bid, not excepting the person in satisfaction of whose demand the sale may be made, nor the under-tenants of the defaulter; fifteen per cent of the purchase-money shall be paid immediately the lot is knocked down, and the officer conducting the sale shall be competent to refuse to accept a bid, or to knock down a lot to any bidder, unless he has assurance to his satisfaction that the amount required to be deposited is in hand for the purpose, or will be produced within two hours.

If the fifteen per cent be not paid in cash, or in⁶ [currency notes], within two hours of the sale, or an equivalent amount in Government securities be not lodged, the lot shall be re-sold on the same day, and, if the remainder of the purchase-money be not paid by noon of the eighth day, notice shall be given of re-sale on the following day, that is, on the ninth from the first sale, by proclaiming the same by beat of drum through the bazar of the sadar station of the zila, after which the lot shall be re-sold at the appointed time at the risk of the first purchaser, who shall forfeit the advance of fifteen per cent already made,* * *⁷ and be further answerable for any sum in which the proceeds of the second sale may fall short of the antecedent one; such deficiency to be levied by the process for the execution of decrees of the Civil Courts.

¹ The month of Assin corresponds with the last part of September and the first part of October.

² The month of Aghan corresponds with the last part of November and the first part of December.

³ The month of Kartik corresponds with the last part of October and the first part of November.

⁴ As to the extension of the application of s. 9, see the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1820 (I of 1820), s. 2 (3) post.

⁵ The words "by the Register or acting Register of the Civil Court, or, in his absence, by the person in charge of the office of Judge or of Magistrate of the district within which the lands may be situated," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

⁶ The words "currency notes" in s. 9 were substituted for the words "notes of the Bank of Bengal" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), Sch. II—see post.

⁷ The words "(which shall be in such case regarded as part of the proceeds of the sale)," in s. 9, which were repealed by the Forfeited Deposits Act, 1850 (XXV of 1850), are omitted. As to the application of forfeited deposits, see s. 2 of that Act, post.

Forms to be observed in selling.

10. At the time of the sale the notice previously stuck up in the cutcherry shall be taken down, and the lots be called up successively in the order in which they may be found in that notice.

A person shall attend on the part of the zamindar, with a particular statement of the payments made up to the day of sale, on account of the balance of each advertised lot, together with the receipt for, or certificate of, the notice directed to be published in the mufassal, nor shall any lot be put up to sale until the statement produced shall have been inspected, and the existence of a balance for the year ascertained therefrom, nor until the receipt for the notice shall have been read; the observance of which forms shall be recorded in a separate rubakari to be held upon each lot sold.

If the sale be of the description provided for in the third clause of section 8 of this Regulation, the kistbandi of the defaulter shall likewise be produced, in order that it may be seen that the balance remaining unpaid exceeds a four-anna proportion of the demand up to the date of sale; nor shall the sale take place unless this be ascertained.

The zamindar shall be exclusively responsible for the correctness and authenticity of the papers to be thus exhibited, nor shall the public officer making the sale be answerable in any respect except for its fairness and publicity, and for the observance of the rules prescribed for his guidance in this Regulation.

Tenure to be sold free of incumbrance by act of defaulter.

11. First.—It is hereby declared that any taluk or saleable tenure that may be disposed of at a public sale, under the rules of this Regulation, for arrears of rent due on account of it, is sold free of all incumbrances that may have accrued upon it by act of the defaulting proprietor, his representatives or assignees, unless the right of making such incumbrances shall have been expressly vested in the holder by a stipulation to that effect in the written engagements under which the said taluk may have been held.

No transfer by sale, gift or otherwise, no mortgage or other limited assignment, shall be permitted to bar the indefeasible right of the zamindar to hold the tenure of his creation answerable, in the state in which he created it for the rent, which is in fact his reserved property in the tenure, except the transfer or assignment should have been made with a condition to that effect, under express authority obtained from such zamindar.

No under-
after sale.

Second.—In like manner, on sale of a taluk for arrears all leases originating with the holder of the former tenure, if creative of a middle interest between the resident cultivators and the late proprietor, must be considered to be cancelled, except the authority to grant them should have been specially transferred: the possessors of such interest must consequently lose the right to hold possession of the land and to collect the rents of the raiyats; this having been enjoyed merely in consequence of the defaulter's assignment of a certain portion of his own interest, the whole of which was liable for the rent.

Third.—Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle the purchaser of a taluk or other saleable tenure intermediate between the zamindar and actual cultivators to eject a khudkast raiyat or resident and hereditary cultivator, not to cancel bond fide engagements made with such tenants by the late incumbent or his representative, except it be proved in regular suit, to be brought by such purchaser, for the adjustment of his rent, that a higher rate would have been demandable at the time such engagements were contracted by his predecessor.

Exception in favour of bond fide engagements with raiyats.

12. The rules of the preceding section, being declaratory of the principle to be observed on all occasions wherein saleable tenures are made responsible for the zamindar's reserved rent, will equally apply to the case of taluks, heretofore sold, as to those that may be sold henceforward, if the sale shall have been fair, and the process observed in conducting it shall have been that recognised and in use in the district at the time of selling.

Above rule to take effect retro-spectively.

Nothing, however, herein contained shall operate to the prejudice of any agreement, express or implied, now subsisting between the purchaser of a taluk and the lessees of his predecessor.

Proviso.

Neither shall the rule for the fall of under-tenures be considered to apply to any private transfer by a talukdar of his own interest, nor to a public sale in execution of a decree, nor to the case of a relinquishment by the talukdar in favour of the zamindar, nor to any act originating with the former holder, other than default as aforesaid: all such operations involve only a transfer of the tenure in the state in which it may be held at the time, and the new incumbent succeeds to no more than the reserved rights of the former tenant, such as they may be, and is of course subject to any restriction put upon the tenure by his act.

Rule not to apply to private transfers.

13. First.—With reference to the injury that may be brought upon the holder of a taluk of the second degree by the operation of the preceding rules, in case the proprietor or the superior tenure purposely withholds the rent due from himself to the zamindar after having realized his own dues from the inferior tenantry, it is deemed necessary to allow such talukdars the means of saving their tenures from the ruin that must attend such a sale; and the following rules have accordingly been enacted for this purpose.

Reason for allowing under-tenants means of staying sale.

Second.—Whenever the tenure of a talukdar of the first degree may be advertised for sale in the manner required by the second and third clauses of section 8 of this Regulation, for arrears of rent due to the zamindar, the talukdars of the second degree, or any number of them, shall be entitled to stay the final sale, by paying into Court the amount of balance that may be declared due by the person attending on the part of the zamindar on the day

How under-tenants may stay sale.

1 As to the extension of the application of s. 13, see—the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1820 (I of 1820), s. 2 (3), post; the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 (Ben. Act VIII of 1865), post; and the Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, 1869 (Ben. Act, VIII of 1869), s. 62, post.

appointed for sale; in like manner they shall be entitled to lodge money antecedently, for the purpose of eventually answering any demand, that may remain due on the day fixed for the sale, and, should the amount lodged be sufficient, the sale shall not proceed, but, after making good to the zamindar the amount of his demand, any excess shall be paid back to the person or persons who may have lodged it.

Procedure in case of amount lodged being rent due from under-tenant;

Third.—If the amount so lodged shall be rent due by the inferior talukdar, the holder of the advertised tenure, the same shall be stated at the time of making the deposit, and the amount shall be carried to the account of the tenant or tenants lodging it, and be deducted from any claim of rent that may at the time be pending, or be thereafter brought forward against him or them by the proprietor of the advertised tenure, on account of the year or months for which the notice of sale may have been published.

and in case of amount lodged being advance from private funds.

Fourth.—If the person or persons making such a deposit, in order to stay the sale of the superior tenure, shall have already paid the whole of the rent due from himself or themselves, so that the amount lodged is an advance from private funds, and not a disbursement on account of the said rent, such deposit shall not be carried to credit in, or set against, future demands for rent, but shall be considered as a loan made to the proprietor of the tenure preserved from sale by such means, and the taluk so preserved shall be the security to the person or persons making the advance, who shall be considered to have a lien thereupon, in the same manner as if the loan had been made upon mortgage; and he or they shall be entitled, on applying for the same to obtain immediate possession of the tenure of the defaulter, in order to recover the amount so advanced from any profits belonging thereto.

If the defaulter shall desire to recover his tenure from the hands of the person or persons who, by making the advance, may have acquired such an interest therein, and entered on possession in consequence, he shall not be entitled to do so, except upon repayment of the entire sum advanced, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum up to the date of possession having been given as above, or upon exhibiting proof, in a regular suit to be instituted for the purpose, that the full amount so advanced, with interest, has been realized from the usufruct of the tenure.

Sale not to be stayed unless arrears claimed be lodged.

14. First.—Should the balance claimed by a zamindar on account of the rent of any under-tenure remain unpaid upon the day fixed for the sale of the tenure, the sale shall be made without reserve, in the manner provided for in sections 9 and 10 of this Regulation; nor shall it be stayed or postponed on any account, unless the amount of the demand be lodged.

But suit to lie for its reversal.

It shall, however, be competent to any party desirous of contesting the right of the zamindar to make the sale, whether on the ground of there having been no balance due, or on any other ground, to sue the zamindar for the reversal of the same, and, upon establishing a sufficient plea, to obtain a decree with full costs and damages.

The purchaser shall be made a party in such suits, and, upon decree passing for reversal of the sale, the Court shall be careful to indemnify him against all loss, at the charge of the zamindar or person at whose suit the sale may have been made.

Second.—In cases also in which a talukdar may contest the zamindar's demand of any arrear, as specified in the notice advertised, such talukdar shall be competent to apply for a summary investigation at any time within the period of notice; the zamindar shall then be called upon to furnish his kabuliyat and other proofs at the shortest convenient notice, in order that the award may, if possible, be made before the day appointed for sale.

Such award, if so made, will of course regulate the ulterior process; but, if the case be still pending, the lot shall be called up in its turn, notwithstanding the suit; and, if the zamindar or his agent in attendance insist on the demand, the sale shall be made on his responsibility, nor shall it be stayed, or the summary suit be allowed to proceed, unless the amount claimed be lodged in cash, or in Government securities, or in ¹[currency notes], by the talukdar contesting the demand; and if such deposit be not made, the alleged defaulter will have no remedy but by a regular action for damages and for a reversal of the sale.

²15. First.—So soon as the entire amount of the purchase-money shall have been paid in by the purchaser at any sale made under this Regulation, such purchaser shall receive from the officers conducting the sale a certificate of such payment.

The purchaser shall then proceed with the certificate in question to procure a transfer to his name in the cutcherry of the zamindar, and upon furnishing security, if required, to the extent of half the jama or annual rent, he shall receive the usual "amaldustuk" or order for possession, together with the notice to the raiyats and others to attend and pay their rents henceforward to him.

The zamindar shall also be bound to furnish access to any papers connected with the tenure purchased that may be forthcoming in his cutcherry; and should he in any manner delay the transfer in his office, or refuse to give the orders for possession, notwithstanding that good and substantial security shall have been furnished or tendered on requisition, the new purchaser shall be entitled to apply direct to the Court,³ and he shall receive the orders for possession, and shall be put in possession, of the lands by means of the nazir, in the same manner as possession is obtained under a decree of Court:

Provided, however, that, if the delay be on account of the zamindar's contesting the sufficiency of the security tendered, the rule contained in section 6 of this Regulation shall be observed.

¹ The words "currency notes" in s. 14 (2) were substituted for the words "notes of the Bank of Bengal," by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), Sch. II—see post.

³ As to the substitution of the Collector for the Court, see the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 (Ben. Act VIII of 1865), s. 3, post.

Procedure in case of opposition to purchaser.

Second.—When the new purchaser shall proceed to take possession of the lands of his purchase, if the late incumbent himself, or the holders of tenures or assignments derived from the late incumbent, and intermediate between him and the actual cultivators, shall attempt to offer opposition, or to interfere with the collections of the new purchaser, from the lands composing his purchase, the latter shall be at liberty to apply immediately to the Civil Court¹ for the aid of the public officers in obtaining possession of his just rights.

A proclamation shall then issue under the seal of the Court and signature of the Judge¹ declaring that the new incumbent having, by purchase at a sale for arrears of rent due to the zamindar, acquired the entire rights and privileges attaching to the tenure of the late talukdar, in the state in which it was originally derived by him from the zamindar, he alone will be recognized as entitled to make the zamindari collections in the mufassal, and no payments made to any other individual will on any account be credited to the raiyats or others in any * * * ²suit for rent * * * ³or on any other occasion whatever, when the same may be pleaded.

Procedure in case of continued opposition.

Third.—Should the late incumbent or his late under-tenants continue to oppose the entry of the new purchaser, notwithstanding the issuing of such a proclamation, or should there be reason to apprehend a breach of the peace on the part of any one, the aid of the police-officers and of all other public officers who may be at hand and capable of affording assistance shall be given to the new purchaser, on his presenting a written application for the same; and in the event of any affray or breach of the peace occurring, the entire responsibility shall rest with the party opposing the lawful attempt of the purchaser to assume his rights.

Disposal of proceeds of sales.

Deduction
on account of Government.

17. First.—The following rules have been enacted for the disposal of the proceeds of any sale made under the rules of this Regulation.

Second.—One per cent shall first be deducted from the net proceeds realized, and shall be carried to the account of Government, for the purpose of meeting the expenses of any extra establishments which it may be necessary to maintain for carrying into effect the provisions of this Regulation.

Payment to zamindars.

Third.—The balance on account of which the sale may have been made shall next be made good in full (with interest and all charges incurred in bringing the taluk to sale) to the zamindar or other person to whom the same may be due :

¹ As to the substitution of the Collector for the Court, see the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 (Ben. Act VIII of 1865), s. 3, post.

² The word "summary" which was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), is omitted.

³ The words and figures "brought under the provisions of section 15, Regulation VII, 1799, or in any application to stay process by distraint, under the rules of Regulation V, 1812," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

⁴ As to the extension of the application of s. 17, see the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1820 (I of 1820), s. 2 (3), post.

Provided, however, that no former balances, beyond those of the current year (or of that immediately expired, if the sale be at the commencement of the following year), shall be included in the demand to be thus satisfied. Such antecedent balances, if the zamindar shall have omitted to avail himself of the process within his reach for having them satisfied at the time, will have become in fact mere personal debts of the individual talukdar, and must be recovered in the same way as other debts by a regular suit in the Court.

Fourth.—Any excess that may remain after satisfying the demand of the zamindar, in the manner above described, shall be forthwith sent by the officer conducting the sale to the treasury of the Collector¹ or Assistant Collector of the district, to be there held in deposit to answer the claims of the talukdars of the second degree, or of others who, by assignment of the defaulter, may be at the time in possession of a valuable interest on the land composing the taluk sold or on any part of it. Disposal of remainder.

Fifth.—It shall be competent to any one conceiving himself to possess such an interest to bring forward his claim to the price he may have paid for the same, or for a just compensation for the loss sustained by him in consequence of the sale, by instituting a regular suit at any time within two months from the date of sale. Under-tenants free to prosecute for price of their interest or compensation.

If there be more claimants than one, payment shall not be made from the deposit until the whole of the claims be settled; and, in case the value assessed upon the whole should exceed the amount in deposit, such amount shall be divided proportionately, and the remainder stand as a personal debt against the defaulter, to be realized from him by the usual process for the execution of decrees.

Suit not to lie if under-tenant be himself in arrear at time of sale.

Seventh.—Should no claims upon the purchase-money of a taluk sold as above be brought forward by any under-tenants or assignees within the period of two months from the date of sale, or should the amount claimed by those who may have sued not equal the entire deposit, the defaulter whose tenure may have been sold shall be at liberty to petition the Court for the amount so held in deposit, or for the excess thereof, as the case may be, and he shall When defaulter to receive excess un-claimed.

⁷ SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), s. 3, to be in force in Assam (except the North Lushai Hills)—see Appendix I, Table B. ing claims to lands gained by alluvion, or by dereliction of a river or the sea.

Preamble.

1. In consequence of the frequent changes which take place in the channel of the principal rivers that intersect the Provinces immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William, and the shifting of the sands which lie in the beds of those rivers, chars or small islands are often thrown up by alluvion in the midst of the stream, or near one of the banks, and large portions of land are carried away by an encroachment of the river on one side, whilst accessions of land are at the same time, or in subsequent years, gained by dereliction of the water on the opposite side; similar instances of alluvion, encroachment and dereliction also sometimes occur on the sea-coast which borders the southern and south-eastern limits of Bengal.

The lands gained from the rivers or sea by the means above-mentioned are a frequent source of contention and affray, and although the law and custom of the country have established rules applicable to such cases, these rules not being generally known, the Courts of Justice have sometimes found it difficult to determine the rights of litigant parties claiming chars or other lands gained in the manner above described.

The Court of Sadar Diwāni Adālat, with a view to ascertain the legal provisions of the Muhammadan and Hindu laws on this subject, called for reports from their law officers of each persuasion, and on consideration of the reports furnished by the law officers in consequence, as well as of the decisions which have been passed by the Court of Sadar Diwāni Adālat in cases brought before them in appeal which involved the rights of claimants to lands gained by alluvion, or by dereliction of rivers or the sea, the Governor General in Council has deemed it proper to enact the following rules for the general information of individuals as well as for the guidance of the Courts of Judicature to be in force, as soon as promulgated, throughout the whole of the Provinces subject to the Presidency of Fort William :—

Claims and disputes as to alluvial lands to be decided by usage when clearly recognized and established.

2. Whenever any clear and definite usage of shikast paiwast respecting the disjunction and junction of land by the encroachment or recess of a river may have been immemorially established, for determining the rights of the proprietors of two or more contiguous estates divided by a river (such as that the main channel of the river dividing the estates shall be the constant boundary between them, whatever changes may take place in the course of the river, by encroachment on one side and accession on the other), the usage so established shall govern the decision of all claims and disputes relative to alluvial land between the parties whose estates may be liable to such usage.

Where no usage established, claims how decided.

3. Where there may be no local usage of the nature referred to in the preceding section, the general rules declared in the following section shall be applied to the determination of all claims and disputes relative to lands gained by alluvion or by dereliction either of a river or the sea.

Lands gained by gradual accession

4. First.—When land may be gained by gradual accession, whether from the recess of a river or of the sea, it shall be considered an increment to the tenure of the person to whose land or estate it is thus annexed, whether such land or estate be held immediately from recess of Government by a zamindar or other superior landholder, or as a subordinate tenure, by any description of under-tenant whatever :

Provided that the increment of land thus obtained shall not entitle the person in possession of the estate or tenure to which the land may be annexed to a right of property or permanent interest therein beyond that possessed by him in the estate or tenure to which the land may be annexed, and shall not in any case be understood to exempt the holder of it from the payment to Government of any assessment for the public revenue to which it may be liable under the provisions of Regulation 2, 1819,¹ or of any other Regulation in force.

Nor, if annexed to a subordinate tenure held under a superior landholder, shall the under-tenant, whether a khudkast raiyat, holding a maúrúsi istim-rári tenure at a fixed rate of rent per bigha, or any other description of under-tenant liable by his engagements, or by established usage, to an increase of rent for the land annexed to his tenure by alluvion, be considered exempt from the payment of any increase of rent to which he may be justly liable.

Second.—The above rule shall not be considered applicable to cases in which a river, by a sudden change of its course, may break through and intersect an estate, without any gradual encroachment, or may by the violence of stream separate a considerable piece of land from one estate and join it to another estate, without destroying the identity and preventing the recognition of the land so removed.

In such cases the land, on being clearly recognized, shall remain the property of its original owner.

Third.—When a char or island may be thrown up in a large navigable river (the bed of which is not the property of an individual), or in the sea, and the channel of the river or sea between such island and the shore may not be fordable, it shall, according to established usage, be at the disposal of Government.

But if the channel between such island and the shore be fordable at any season of the year, it shall be considered an accession to the land tenure or tenures of the person or persons whose estate or estates may be most contiguous to it, subject to the several provisions specified in the first clause of this section with respect to increment of land by gradual accession.

Fourth.—In small and shallow rivers, the beds of which, with the jalkar right of fishery, may have been heretofore recognized as the property of individuals, any sand-bank or char that may be thrown up shall, as hitherto, belong to the proprietor of the bed of the river, subject to the provisions stated in the first clause of the present section.

lands gained by alluvion or by dereliction not provided for by Regulation.

ments on

Fifth.—In all other cases, namely, in all cases of claims and disputes respecting land gained by alluvion or by dereliction of a river or the sea, which are not specifically provided for by the rules contained in this Regulation, the Courts of Justice, in deciding upon such claims and disputes, shall be guided by the best evidence they may be able to obtain of established local usage, if there be any applicable to the case, or, if not, by general principles of equity and justice.

5. Nothing in this Regulation shall be construed to justify any encroachments by individuals on the beds or channels of navigable rivers, or to prevent Zila * * * Magistrates or any other officers of Government who may be duly empowered for that purpose from removing obstacles which appear to interfere with the safe and customary navigation of such rivers, or which shall in any respects obstruct the passage of boats by tracking on the banks of such rivers, or otherwise.

BENGAL REGULATION 17 OF 1829.

(THE BENGAL SATI REGULATION, 1829.⁴)

[4th December, 1829.]

A Regulation for declaring the practice of sati or of burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus illegal and punishable by the Criminal Courts.

Preamble.

1. The practice of sati or of burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus is revolting to the feelings of human nature ; it is nowhere enjoined by the religion of the Hindus as an imperative duty ; on the contrary, a life of purity and retirement on the part of the widow is more especially and preferably inculcated, and by a vast majority of that people throughout India the practice is not kept up nor observed : in some extensive districts it does not exist ; in those in which it has been most frequent it is notorious that in many instances acts of atrocity have been perpetrated which have been shocking to the Hindus themselves and in their eyes unlawful and wicked.

The measures hitherto adopted to discourage and prevent such acts have failed of success, and the Governor General in Council is deeply impressed with the conviction that the abuses in question cannot be effectually put an end to without abolishing the practice altogether.

¹ In Assam, the Chief Commissioner—see the Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam Laws Act, 1912 (VII of 1912), s. 3, and Sch. D, Pt. III, post.

² In Assam, the Deputy Commissioner.

³ The words "or City," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

⁴ SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897), Sch. III—see post.

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), s. 3, to be in force in Assam (except the North Lushai Hills)—see Vol. II, Appendix I, Table B. The application of the Regulation is barred in the Lushai Hills, by notification—see Vol. II, Appendix II, Table D.

Actuated by these considerations, the Governor General in Council, without intending to depart from one of the first and most important principles of the system of British Government in India, that all classes of the people be secure in the observance of their religious usages, so long as that system can be adhered to without violation of the paramount dictates of justice and humanity, has deemed it right to establish the following rules, which are hereby enacted to be in force from the time of their promulgation throughout the territories immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William.

2. The practice of sati or burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus is hereby declared illegal and punishable by the Criminal Courts.

Provided that an employer, who omits to apply for such endorsement as aforesaid at the time when the Inspector is actually visiting the estate, shall, in the absence of sufficient reasons to the contrary shown to the satisfaction of the Inspector, be debarred from applying afterwards for endorsement in so far as days of absence which occurred prior to the date of the Inspector's last visit are concerned.

(2) Where the Inspector or Magistrate is of opinion, after such inquiry as he thinks sufficient, that such person as aforesaid was engaged or compelled or induced to emigrate by any such coercion, undue influence, fraud or misrepresentation as would justify his being sent back to his native district, the Inspector or Magistrate shall record a finding to that effect and shall, if necessary, detain the person and shall send him, if he so desires, together with any other persons dependent on him, back to his native district.

(3) Subject to any orders which the Local Government may make in this behalf, any expenditure incurred under this section may be recovered from the employer on whose behalf the person concerned was induced to emigrate or to whose estate he was being or had been conveyed, or, if the employer is not known, or if there is no employer, the person who is accompanying or conveying the person concerned or has forwarded or otherwise assisted him to emigrate to any labour-district or estate.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide in the territories under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Assam for the levy on land of rates to be applied to defray the expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine and to local purposes; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Regulation may be called the Assam Local Rates Regulation, 1879.

¹ LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation extends to Assam, but comes into force only in districts or parts of districts notified under s. 1.

It has been so brought into force in—the districts of Cachar, Darrang, Goalpara Kámrúp, Lakhimpur, Nowgong, Sibságar and Sylhet—see Notfn. No. 295-G., dated 8th December, 1879, in Assam Gazette, 1879, Pt. I, p. 708, and the tract transferred from the Mokokchang sub-division of the Naga Hills District to the Sibságar District, as defined in the Notfn. No. 1436-P., dated 11th April, 1901—see Notfn. No. 1875-J., dated 7th May, 1901, in Assam Gazette, 1901, Pt. II, p. 369.

It extends only to the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of Assam ; and it shall come into force in such districts, or such parts thereof, and on such dates, as the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Assam Gazette, from time to time direct.

2. In this Regulation,—

tion-clause.

(1) "land" means land, whether covered with water or not, which is, or in the absence of some express exemption would be, assessable to land-revenue ;

(2) "landholder," in the case of land assessed to land-revenue, means any person responsible for the payment of the revenue assessed on such land, and, in the case of land not so assessed, any person who, if such land were assessed to land-revenue, would be responsible for the payment of the revenue assessed thereon ;

(3) "tenant" means any person holding land from a landholder and liable to pay or deliver rent therefor ;

(4) "the permanently-settled portion of Sylhet" means the whole of that district except the Jaintia parganas ; and "the permanently-settled portion of Goálpára" means the whole of that district except the Bhutan Duárs ;

(5) "annual value," used in respect of any land, means the following (that is to say) :—

- (a) where such land is liable to be periodically re-settled at full rates,—the land-revenue for the time being assessed on such land ;
- (b) where such land is situate in any place other than the permanently-settled portions of Sylhet and Goálpára, and the land-revenue of such land has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned,—twice the land-revenue which at the current rates of the district for temporarily-settled estates would be assessable on the cultivated portion of such land, less by any reduced revenue payable thereon ;
- (c) where such land has been permanently settled and is assessed to land-revenue,—two rupees for each acre of such land ;
- (d) where such land is situate in the permanently-settled portions of Sylhet and Goálpára and the land-revenue on such land has been permanently released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned,—two rupees for each acre of such land, together with a sum for each such acre equal to the average rate of incidence per acre of the land, revenue assessed on the recorded area of the permanently-settled land within the same pargana :

Provided that when any land to be valued under sub-clause (c) or sub-clause (d) exceeds four hundred acres in area or is assessed to land-revenue at not less than one hundred rupees, and any portion of such land has not been cultivated for three years, the annual value of such portion shall not be deemed to exceed the annual profits derived by the land-holder from the same :

Provided also that when any land has been acquired under a grant or lease made in accordance with any rules issued by, or under the authority of, Government for the grant or lease of waste-lands for the cultivation of tea, coffee or cinchona, the annual value shall be ascertained in the following way (that is to say) :—

if the grant or lease has been made under the rules for the lease of waste-lands in force at the date of the passing of this Regulation, the revenue payable under the conditions of the grant or lease shall be deemed to be the annual value of such land ;

if the grant or lease has been made under any other rules previously in force for the grant or lease of waste-lands, it shall be ascertained what would have been the revenue payable at the time of assessment if at the date of making the grant or lease the rules now in force for the grant or lease of waste-lands had been in force, and such revenue shall be deemed to be the annual value of such land ;

or, in either of the above cases, if the land-holder prefers it, the land actually under cultivation within the boundaries of the area granted or leased during the year previous to the assessment of rates under this Regulation shall be assessed as if it were land paying full rates of land-revenue, and such assessment shall be deemed to be the annual value for the purposes of this Regulation.

This proviso shall not apply to land sold under any rules issued by, or with the authority of, Government for the sale of waste-lands revenue-free, or to any lands leased under any rules for the lease of waste-lands of which the revenue payable under the lease has been subsequently commuted, redeemed or compounded for.

Rates assessable.

3. All land shall be liable to the payment of such rate, in addition to the land-revenue and local cesses (if any) assessed thereon, as the Chief Commissioner from time to time directs, not exceeding one anna four pies for every rupee of the annual value of such land.

Effect of imposition of land-rate on cess now leviable.

4. When a rate is imposed on any land under this Regulation, any cess now leviable on such land for any of the purposes mentioned in section 12 shall cease to be levied on such land ; or, if such cess be maintained, a corresponding diminution shall be made in such rate.

Recovery of rate.

5. All sums due on account of a rate imposed on any land under this Regulation shall be payable by the land-holder, and shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of land-revenue due on such land.

When such land is held by two or more land-holders, such land-holders shall be jointly and severally liable for such sums.

* * * * *

6. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the Assam Gazette— Powers of Government Local.

7. All land-holders shall, on the requisition of any officer appointed under the preceding section to assess and collect a rate, furnish such information as they may be called upon by him to supply regarding the area and class of the land held by them, the extent of such land under cultivation and the crops grown, and all other information necessary to enable him to determine the annual value of such land as defined in section 2. Land-holders required to furnish information.

In case of default or refusal to supply such information when required, or if the officer appointed as aforesaid has reason to doubt the correctness of the information supplied, such officer may, personally or by means of his subordinates, carry out any inquiry on the land which may be necessary, and make any surveys which he may deem essential to the obtaining of such information; and the cost of such inquiry and surveys shall be borne by the land-holder in all cases of default or refusal, and, when such inquiry is undertaken in consequence of doubt as to the correctness of the information referred, if the inquiry and survey made show the information supplied to have been incorrect.

8. An appeal from the order of any officer appointed under section 6 to assess or collect a rate shall lie to the Chief Commissioner, or to such person as the Chief Commissioner may appoint in this behalf. Appeals.

The order passed on any such appeal by the Chief Commissioner, or the person so appointed, shall be final.

11. The proceeds of all rates levied under this Regulation shall be carried to the credit of a General Provincial Fund.

Appropriation for increasing revenues available for famine purposes.

12. 13. Any portion of such allotment remaining unexpended at the end of the year in which the allotment was made may, at the discretion of the Chief Commissioner, be re-allotted for expenditure in the same district, or may be

The Chief Commissioner shall establish in each district a District Local Committee, consisting of not less than six persons, for the purpose of determining how the amount allotted for such district under section 12 shall be applied, and of supervising and controlling the expenditure of the same; and for the same purpose may, in addition to the District Committee, form as many Branch Committees, consisting of not less than three persons each, as he may think fit, and shall define the portions of the district within which such Branch Committees shall exercise their functions.

15. 17. When a rate is levied under this Regulation from a land-holder in respect of any land under sub-clause (a), (b), (c) or (d) of clause (5) of section 2, and such land is held by a tenant of such land-holder at a rent less than the aggregate of the annual value of such land and the revenue (if any) payable in respect of the same, such land-holder may realise from such tenant a part of such rate, bearing to the whole of such rate the same ratio as the excess of such aggregate above such rent bears to the annual value.

Power to recover share of rate from tenant.

Illustrations.

(a) A is the holder of land of the description mentioned in sub-clause (a) of clause (5), of section 2, of which the land-revenue is Rs. 100. The annual value is therefore Rs. 100, and the rate at one anna per rupee would be Rs. 6-4. The land is held by a tenant, B, at a rent of Rs. 150. Then $100 : (200 - 150) = 5 : :$ Rs. 6-4 : Rs. 3-2. A may realize Rs. 3-2 from B.

(b) A is the holder of land of the description mentioned in sub-clause (b) of clause (5) of section 2, on which the land-revenue payable is Rs. 50, and on which the full land-revenue at current rates would be Rs. 100. The annual value is therefore Rs. 150, and the rate at one anna per rupee would be Rs. 9-6. The land is held by a tenant, B, at a rent of Rs. 150. Then $150 : (200 - 150) (=) 50 : : Rs. 9-6 : Rs. 3-2$. A may realize Rs. 3-2 from B.

(c) A is the holder of one hundred acres of land of the description mentioned in sub-clause (c) of clause (5) of section 2. The annual value of such land is therefore Rs. 200 and the rate at one anna per rupee would be Rs. 12-8. The revenue assessed on the land is Rs. 50. The land is held by a tenant, B, at a rent of Rs. 100. Then Rs. 200 : (250 - 100) (=) 150 : : Rs. 12-8 : Rs. 9-6. A may realize Rs. 9-6 from B.

(d) A is the holder of one hundred acres of land of the description mentioned in sub-clause (d) of clause (5) of section 2. The average rate of incidence per acre of the land-revenue in other permanently-settled land in the same pergana is eight annas. The annual value of such land is therefore Rs. 250, and the rate at one anna per rupee would be Rs. 15-10. The land is held by a tenant, B, at a rent of Rs. 125. Then $250 : (250 - 125) (=) 125 : : Rs. 15-10 : Rs. 7-13$. A may realize Rs. 7-13 from B.

Suits regarding rate cog-nizable by Courts having cognizance of suits for rent.

18. Suits for the recovery from co-sharers, tenants or others of any sum on account of a rate imposed on any land under this Regulation, and suits on account of illegal exaction of such rate or for the settlement of accounts of such rate, shall be cognizable by the Courts which, under the law for the time being in force, have cognizance of suits for rent due on such land, and by no other Courts.

⁵ The matter printed in italics is now obsolete. Act X of 1872 was repealed and re-enacted by Act X of 1882, which again has been repealed and re-enacted by Act V of 1898 (the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898). ¹ And whereas it is also expedient to remove doubts which have been raised as to whether, when the Garo Hills Act, 1869, was repealed by the extension of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874,² to the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of Assam, Act 10 of 1872 (the Code of Criminal Procedure) came into force in those portions of those territories to which the Garo Hills Act, 1869, had previously applied or been extended, namely, the Garo Hills District, the Naga Hills District and the Khási and Jaintia Hills District ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Power to extend Regulation II of 1880 to certain

CHAPTER VI.

PARTITION AND UNION OF REVENUE-PAYING ESTATES.

"Perfect partition" and "imperfect partition" defined.

Persons entitled to partition.

Application for perfect partition.

Notification of application.

Objection on question of title.

96. Partition is either perfect or imperfect. "Perfect partition" means the division of a revenue-paying estate into two or more such estates, each separately liable for the revenue assessed thereon. "Imperfect partition" means the division of a revenue-paying estate into two or more portions jointly liable for the revenue assessed on the entire estate.

97. (1) Every recorded proprietor of a permanently-settled estate, and every recorded landholder of a temporarily-settled estate, may, if he is in actual possession of the interest in respect of which he desires partition, claim perfect or imperfect partition of the estate :

Provided that—

- (a) no person shall be entitled to apply for perfect partition if the result of such partition would be to form a separate estate, liable for an annual amount of revenue less than five rupees ;
- (b) no person shall be entitled to apply for imperfect partition of an estate unless with the consent of recorded co-sharers holding in the aggregate more than one-half of the estate ;
- (c) a person may claim partition only in so far as the partition can be effected in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) When two or more proprietors or landholders would be entitled under sub-section (1) to partition in respect of their respective interests in the estates, they may jointly claim partition in respect of the aggregate of their interests.

98. Every application for perfect partition shall be in writing, shall be presented to the Deputy Commissioner, and shall specify the area of the estate, the applicant's interest therein and the names of the other proprietors or landholders.

99. (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall, if the application is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, publish a proclamation at his office, and at some conspicuous place on the estate to which the application relates ; and shall serve a notice on all such of the recorded proprietors or landholders of the estate as have not joined in the application, requiring any of them in possession who may object to the partition to appear before him and state their objections, on a day to be specified in the proclamation and notice, not being less than thirty or more than sixty days from the date on which the proclamation is issued.

(2) Where, from any cause, notice cannot be personally served on any proprietor or landholder, the proclamation shall be deemed sufficient notice under this section.

100. (1) If an objection preferred as required under section 99 raises any question of title which has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Deputy Commissioner shall stay his proceedings for such time as, in his opinion, is sufficient to admit of a suit being instituted in the Civil Court to try the objection.

(2) A Deputy Commissioner staying his proceedings under this section shall make an order requiring the objector, or, if for any reason he deems it more equitable, the applicant, to institute such a suit within the time fixed, and, in the event of such a suit not being instituted within that time, may, in his discretion, disallow the objection, or dismiss the application, as the case may be.

(3) On a suit being instituted to try any objection under this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall, with reference to the objection, be guided by the orders passed by the Civil Court in the suit.

101. If any objection, other than an objection of the nature referred to in section 100, is preferred as aforesaid to the partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall dispose of it himself; unless for any reason he thinks fit to require that it be submitted to a Civil Court for adjudication, in which event the provisions of section 100 shall apply to the objection. Other objections how dealt with.

102. When the period specified under section 99 has expired, and the objections (if any) made have been disposed of by the Deputy Commissioner or by the Civil Court, as the case may be, the Deputy Commissioner shall, if no such objection has been allowed, proceed to make the partition: Proceedings of Deputy Commissioner after objections have been disposed of.

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, in order to admit of the institution of an appeal from any decision regarding an objection, or for any other reason he deems sufficient, further postpone his proceedings.

103. The Deputy Commissioner may give the parties the option of making the partition themselves or of appointing arbitrators for the purpose; or he may make the partition himself. Mode of partition.

104. In making partitions the Deputy Commissioner, and any person appointed by him, shall have the same powers for entry on the land under partition, for marking out the boundaries, surveying and other purposes, as have been conferred on Survey-officers by or under this Regulation. Power to enter on land for purposes of partition.

105. Where there are no lands held in common, the lands held in severalty by the applicant for partition shall be declared a separate estate, and shall be separately assessed to the Government revenue. Partition of lands held only in severalty.

106. (1) Where some of the lands are held in common, the Deputy Commissioner shall allot to the applicant for partition his share of those lands in accordance with village-custom, if any such exists. If no such custom exists, the Deputy Commissioner shall make such division as may secure to the applicant his fair portion of the common lands. Partition of lands some of which are held in common.

(2) The portion of the common lands falling by the partition to the share of the applicant shall be added to the land held by him in severalty, and the aggregate thus formed shall be declared a separate estate, and shall be separately assessed to the Government revenue.

107. Where all the lands are held in common, the Deputy Commissioner shall make such a partition as may secure to the applicant his fair share of the estate, and the land allotted to him shall be declared a separate estate, and shall be separately assessed to the Government revenue. Partition where all lands held in common.

Transfers to be effectuated in making partition.

108. In making a partition under section 105 or section 106, the Deputy Commissioner shall give effect to any transfer of lands held in severalty, forming part of the estate, agreed to by the parties and made before the declaration of the partition.

Estates to be compact.

109. In all cases each estate shall be made as compact as possible :

Provided that, except with the sanction of the Commissioner, [or, when there is no Commissioner, with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner,] no partition shall be disallowed solely on the ground of incompactness.

Rule when building of one sharer is included in estate assigned to another.

110. (1) If, in making a partition, it is necessary to include in the estate assigned to one sharer the land occupied by a dwelling-house or other building in the possession of another co-sharer, that other co-sharer shall be allowed to retain it, with any buildings thereon, on condition of his paying a reasonable ground-rent for it to the sharer into whose portion it may fall.

(2) The limits of the land, and the rent to be paid for it, shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

Rules as to tanks, wells, water-courses and embankments.

111. (1) Tanks, wells, water-courses and embankments shall be considered as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

(2) Where, from the extent, situation or construction of any such work, it is found necessary that it should continue the joint property of the proprietors or landholders of two or more of the estates into which the estate is divided, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine the extent to which the proprietors or landholders of each estate make use of the work, and the proportion of the charges for repairs to be borne by them respectively, and the manner in which the profits, if any, derived from the work, are to be divided.

Rules as to places of worship and burial-grounds.

112. (1) Places of worship and burial-grounds, held in common previous to the partition of an estate, shall continue to be so held, unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves.

(2) In such cases they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and their statement shall be filed with the record.

Determination of revenue payable by each portion of divided estate.

113. (1) The amount of revenue to be paid by each portion of the divided estate shall be determined by the Deputy Commissioner :

Provided that the aggregate revenue of the new estates shall not exceed the revenue assessed on the estate immediately before partition.

(2) The proprietors or landholders of each of the new estates shall be jointly and severally liable for the portion of the revenue assessed on their estate, whether new acceptances are taken from them or not.

Costs.

114. (1) The Chief Commissioner shall make rules for determining the costs of partitions under this Act, the mode in which those costs are to be apportioned, and the parties by whom and the stage of the proceedings at which they are to be paid :

Provided that the cost of surveying an estate, when a survey is necessary for the purpose of partition, shall be paid, rateably, by all the proprietors or landholders of the estate according to their interests therein.

(2) If the costs to be paid by the applicant for partition are not paid within a time to be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner subject to the rules made under this section, the case may be struck off the file.

115. If at any stage of the proceedings there appears to be any reason for stopping the partition, the Deputy Commissioner may, of his own motion, stay the partition and order the proceedings to be quashed.

116. On completion of a partition the Deputy Commissioner shall publish a proclamation of the fact at his office and at some conspicuous place on each of the new estates or in the estate of which they originally formed part ; and the partition shall take effect from the beginning of the agricultural year next after the date of the proclamation.

¹ 116A. As soon as may be after the date on which the partition takes effect under the last preceding section, the Deputy Commissioner shall deliver to the several sharers possession of the separate lands allotted to them, and for this purpose may, if necessary, summarily eject any proprietor or landholder who may refuse to vacate the same.

117. An appeal against the decision of the Deputy Commissioner making a partition shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division [or, where there is no Commissioner, to the Chief Commissioner,] within one year from the date on which the partition takes effect.

118. Where the revenue is fraudulently or erroneously distributed at the time of the partition, the Chief Commissioner may, within twelve years from the time of discovery of the fraud or error, order a new allotment of the revenue upon the several estates into which the estate has been divided, on an estimate of the assets of each estate at the time of the partition, to be made conformably to the best evidence and information procurable respecting the same.

119. Imperfect partition shall be carried out according to the provisions of the preceding sections, so far as they are applicable.

120. If a recorded proprietor or landholder is in possession of two or more revenue-paying estates, he may, subject to the rules framed under section 121, claim to have those estates united, and to hold them as a single estate.

121. The Chief Commissioner may make rules, not being inconsistent with this Regulation, as to the procedure and principles to be observed in dealing with applications for, and in carrying out, the partition and union of estates, and in assessing the land-revenue on estates divided.

It has been brought into force, by notification under s. 1 (2) of that Regulation, in all areas in which Ch. REGULATION 3 OF 1891.

(THE SYLHET JHUM REGULATION, 1891.)¹

[6th June, 1891.]

A Regulation to provide for the commutation of the rights, if any, corresponding to the jhum, tippera, gurkati and pani-sikka assets of certain permanently-settled estates in the District of Sylhet.

WHEREAS the officers who effected the permanent settlements of certain estates in the district of Sylhet included, for the purposes of assessment among the assets of those of estates, under the designations of jhum, tippera, gurkati and pani-sikka, the income then derived by the proprietors of those estates from shifting cultivation carried on by them or their dependants beyond the limits of those estates, and from tolls levied by them on forest-produce cut, gathered or enjoyed in places beyond the limits of those estates, and, in the case of pani-sikka, from some source now unknown ;

And whereas, inasmuch as the said cultivation and the operations of those who cut, gathered or enjoyed the said forest-produce shifted from year to year over immense and altogether undefined areas, the tracts of land over which they extended were not specified at the time of the settlement, and, in consequence of this, rights of various and in some cases vague, descriptions are from time to time asserted by the said proprietors over immense and undefined areas ;

And whereas it is thus impossible for any person to obtain a safe and clear title to land in those areas, and the extension of cultivation is, in consequence, impeded ;

And whereas it is expedient that the rights, if any, corresponding to the said jhum, tippera, gurkati and pani-sikka assets should be commuted ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Title, extent and commencement.

- (3) It shall come into force in each such area on such day, not being less remote than one month from the date of the notification, as the Chief Commissioner may, by the notification, fix in this behalf.
- (4) Every notification under the section applying this Regulation to any local area and fixing the day on which it is to come into force in the local area.

shall, as soon as may be, in addition to the publication in the local official Gazette, be further published—

1 of 1886.

- (a) by the posting, in the manner prescribed for the posting of copies of statements under section 72, sub-section (5), of the ¹ Assam Land and Revenue Regulation, 1886, of a copy of the notification, with a copy or summary of this Regulation appended thereto, on or in the vicinity of every estate of which the whole or any part is comprised in the local area, and
